

State Suspends, Revokes Licenses

Drivers license suspensions and revocations announced recently by the Michigan Department of State included numerous persons in Livonia, Garden City and Westland.

Appeal to the department is possible and, if successful, some of those listed may have regained their licenses since the announcement.

Appearance on the suspension list signifies that the persons failed to appear in court in response to summonses.

Those whose licenses were revoked are denoted by (R) in the lists that follow. Others were suspended.
