MRS. JAMES S. MORRIS
(Sue Ellerholz)

Ecumenical Rites Unite Couple

Ecumenical rites united Linda Sue Ellerholz and James S. Morris in marriage last night at St. Michael's Catholic Church, Livonia, on Sept. 13.

The Rev. R.C. Dunkelberger of nearby Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian Church joined the Rev. Andrew J. Forliss of St. Michael's in officiating the double-ring ceremony, and the reception following the wedding was held in the Rosedale Gardens church hall.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Howard Ellerholz of Stanwood Drive, Livonia, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morris of Hees Avenue, Livonia, are the bridegroom's parents.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her uncle, Harold Ellerholz, the bride wore a white silk organza gown with scoop neckline, empire waist and lace and seed pearl appliques. The lace and pearl trim were repeated on the headpiece that held her veil, and she carried white rosebuds, baby's breath and lily.

Her attendants wore blue-empire dresses with wide lace ruffles on the sleeves and carried blue bachelor buttons and carnations and white shams.

Mrs. Ellerholz, the bride's sister, was maid of honor, and the bridegroom's sisters, Sally

Ann and Mary Jo Morris, were bridesmaids. Small Ellen Morris, another sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl in a blue and white lace dress. The bridegroom's young brother, Edward, was ring bearer.

BEST MAN was Tim Morris, brother of the bridegroom, and guests were seated by Paul and Peter Ellerholz, brothers of the bride; Charles Collins of Farmington and Gerald Hopp of Livonia.

The couple greeted 300 guests at the reception before leaving for a New York City honeymoon. They will make their home in Alexandria, Va., near Fort Belvoir where the bridegroom is stationed as a Spec/4 in the U.S. Army.

The new Mrs. Morris is a graduate of Schoolcraft Community College and a senior at Eastern Michigan University. Her husband attended SCC before entering the Army.

Women Of Wayne Award Scholarships To Four From Area

Four of the 16 recipients of the Women of Wayne's 1969-70 Incentive Scholarship Grants are residents of Chervinland. They are Patricia Collin of 10023 Hambleton, Livonia; Barbara Navoy of 33611 Donnelly, Garden City; M. Joyce Young of 18375 Appleton, Redford Township; and Leona Barnhart of 18250 Brady, Redford Township.

The scholarship winners were honored during a special reception in the WSU Alumni House on Oct. 17. Patricia Collin, Barbara Navoy and M. Joyce Young also received the scholarships during 1968-69.

The majority of the scholarship recipients are homemakers in their 30s or 40s and they display interests in a variety of studies ranging from family life education to sociology and anthropology.

Scholarship competition is Livonians Co-Host Party

Mr. and Mrs. George Nimmo of Henry Ruff Road, Livonia, co-hosted a reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Imhoff on their 50th wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Nimmo is the Imhoffs' daughter. Co-hosts of the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Clare Imhoff of Birmingham, Detroiters for more than 40 years, the Imhoffs now reside in Seminole, Fla.
