FHS tankers win with depth

By TOM BAER

Farmington High's depth was evident last Thursday night in its 88-84 victory over Livonia Stevenson in an Inter Lakes League girls' swimming meet in Stevenson's pool.

The meet wasn't decided until the last event, the 400-yard freestyle relay. Farmington needed—and got—a second place in the relay. Its team (Mitzie Richardson, Kim Hinkle, Sharon Spjeldet and Angela Gore) recorded a 4:31.2.

Farmington's Sally Scheuler won two individual events, the 50-yard freestyle (2:27.6) and the 100-yard breaststroke (1:14.9). Farmington's 200-yard medley relay (Laura Edwards, Schaefer, Tami Richardson and Sue Sterling) won in 2:04.7. Ellen Bunting of Farmington won the 200-yard individual medley with a time of 2:34.1.

Farmington, now 8-1 overall and 4-0 in the ILL, swims next on Tuesday, Oct. 31, at home against non-league Livonia Bentley. The meet has a 7 p.m. start.

ual events in North Farmington's 105-68 victory over Walled Lake Central in a non-league meet at Central last Thursday afternoon.

Jewell won the 50 free (:25.8) and the 100 fly (1:03.6). Hausser won the 200 IM (2:27.9) and the 100 free (:58.4) and Lindsay took the 200 free (2:18.2) and the 500 free (6:36.6). North's Ann Gahagan established a varsity record in diving with 180.65 points.

North's 200 medley relay (Julie Pacheco, Mary Shuey, Janice Hurick and Cathy Evangelista) won in 2:20.2. Earlier last week, Redford Union bested North Farmington, 88-84, in a Northwest Suburban League meet. Jewell won two events, the 200 free (2:01.7) and the 100 fly (1:03.0), in a losing effort.

North, now 5-5 overall and 4-1 in the NSL, swims at West Bloomfield at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 31.

HARRISON—SALEM

Julie Burland and Cathy Rudel each won two individual events to pace Farmington Harrison's 96-77 victory over Plymouth Salem last Thursday in a non-league girls' swimming meet at Harrison.

Rudel won the 500-yard freestyle (5:23.9) and the 200-yard freestyle (2:00.0), and Burland took the 50 freestyle (1:26.6) and the 100 freestyle (1:57.3).

Sue Humphries of Harrison won the diving event with 220.9 points, and teammate Julie Weiss won the 100 breaststroke in 1:16.4.

Earlier last week, Harrison defeated Plymouth Canton 96-77 in a Western Six League contest at Canton.

Rudel won the 200 individual medley (2:23.1) and the 100 butterfly (1:05.3). Burland finished first in the 200 free (2:08.4) and the 100 free (:58.5).

Humphries won diving with 210.0 points, and Weiss won the breaststroke in 1:03.8.

Harrison swims next on at 4 p.m. Thursday (Nov. 21) at home against Walled Lake Western.

MERCY—FOLEY

Farmington Our Lady of Mercy's B team got a workout last Thursday in the Marlins' easy 69-14 win over Madison Heights Bishop Foley in a Catholic League girls' swim meet. The victory put Mercy at 7-0 overall and 4-0 in the Catholic League.

Mercy won all 11 events. Some Mercy firsts: Ann MacIntyre (2:07.0 in the 200 freestyle), Adrienne Hampe (2:24, 50 free), Ginger Smith (a varsity record 191.0 in diving), Judy Sheridan (2:35.0, 200 IM), and Kim Brooks (1:13.0, 100 butterfly).

Mercy swims next on Monday, Oct. 30, at non-league West Bloomfield. The meet starts at 2:30 p.m.

Mercy avenges cage loss

By TOM BAER

Farmington Our Lady of Mercy, the defending Class A state girls' basketball champion, raised its record to 10-1 this season with a 53-43 victory over Walled Lake Central last Tuesday. On the previous Friday (Oct. 20), Mercy avenged its only loss this year with a 44-40 win over Harper Woods Regina in the Catholic League.

Mercy's Carolyn Chapman, a 5-foot-6 junior, played key roles in both games. Against Regina, she scored a game-high 12 points, eight coming in the second half. Gretchen Larges and Laura Zwiler each had eight points against Regina, which had beaten Mercy, 56-50, in an earlier meeting.

Against Central, Larges scored 14 points and Chapman had 10. Julie Kunze scored 13 for Central, which led by three points (31-28) at halftime, and by nine (49-40) after three quarters. Mercy, however, outscored the Vikings, 7-0, in the final stanza.

In other girls' basketball games last week, Farmington High stopped Milford Lakeland, 66-23, in the later Lakes League. Farmington is 7-6 overall and 4-2 in the ILL.
