

FARMINGTON HIGH SCHOOL MUSIC PATRONS gave a banquet this week for the young musicians, twirlers, flag carriers, announcers, their parents and families. The banquet, which officially marked the end of the season for the school's marching band, was given to say thank you for a job well done.

After the feast, guests watched a show of slides recapturing memories of summer band camp and some of the fall games.

Among the guests were the band's quartet which drew quite a crowd on street corners during the musicians' Tag Days.

SUPPORT GROUP FOR DIVORCED WOMEN meets at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in Roseale Gardens Presbyterian Church, 9601 Hubbard, Livonia.

The group is sponsored by YWCA of Western Wayne County and meets every second Thursday. Membership is open to any woman separated, or in the process of divorce, or recently divorced.

A $6 YWCA membership is the only charge. Membership information is available by calling the YWCA at 561-4110.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF RETIRED PERSONS, Farmington Hills Chapter, meet at 12:30 p.m. Friday in Farmington Hills Community Library, 3227 Twelve Mile.

The meeting will begin with a harvest potluck lunch, followed by music from Pattie Meloche who sings songs of the '20s and '30s. Cost to those not bringing a prepared dish for the lunch is $2.50, payable at the door.

SINGLE POINT, a metropolitan adult Christian singles group, hosts the Covenant Players at 7:30 p.m. Friday in Ward United Presbyterian Church, Six Mile and Farmington Road in Livonia.

The Covenant Players use a series of one-act plays and vignettes to stimulate audiences to take a searching look at themselves in today's complex society.

Single Point is interdenominational and welcomes all single adults older than 18 regardless of religious or church affiliation.

Bi-monthly meetings are held the first and third Fridays of each month in the church.

FARMINGTON SENIOR CITIZEN DROP-IN CENTER is open Mondays and Wednesdays for pinocle and bridge games from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in Farmington Masonic Temple on Grand River and Farmington Road.

Guests are invited to bring a sandwich for lunch. Beverage is furnished.

THE GATHERING PLACE hosts Jackie Cianciola at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 21, who will tell how to wrap gifts neatly and cleverly for holiday giving.

Ms. Cianciola, who is the bingo caller for senior citizens at the Gathering Place, is reputed to be able to make nothing look like something special, with little cost and effort, with her gift wrapping know-how.

She asks guests to bring a box, some scotch tape, ribbon and paper, for practicing during her demonstration.

The Gathering Place is open from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. weekdays in Mercy Center on Eleven Mile and Middlebelt. Guests are asked to use Gate 4 on Eleven Mile.

Steggles-Burkhart

Mr. and Mrs. E. Ross Steggles of Bird Key, Fla., formerly of Orchard Lake, have announced the engagement of their daughter Sherry to Gregory Burkhart, son of Mrs. Marcelle Burkhart of Royal Oak.

She is a graduate of Kingswood. She attended Central Michigan University. Her fiance attended Oakland University, but is presently employed in Florida where the couple will make their home.

The wedding will take place on Nov. 4 at the First Presbyterian Church of Farmington.

Parsons-Ellsworth

Lee Ellsworth and James J. Parsons were wed in a double ring ceremony conducted by George Ramsey and Homer Nye in First Presbyterian Church of Farmington. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Ellsworth of Farmington Hills, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Parsons of Warren.

For her wedding, the bride wore a princess-styled gown with long sleeves, V neck and bodice of pearly tulle and Almon lace, while she carried a bouquet of roses and baby's breath.

Her attendants, Georgia Ellsworth, Cathy Scott, Patty Evans and Karen Shaw, all were clad in coral.

Michael Parsons served as best man with groomsmen Allan Marsack, Steve Ure and Gary Begley. The bride is a graduate of North Farmington High School and works in the 47th District Court while attending Oakland Community College. The groom graduated from Charles Mott High School in Warren, attended Wayne State University and is employed as an engineering technician for Yeyer, Tiseo and Hinds in Farmington.

The couple received guests in Farmington Country Club before leaving on a wedding trip to Hawaii.
