

Wright-De Bin

Kathleen Livia De Bin and Paul Christopher Wright were wed Dec. 3 in St. Mary Student Chapel in Ann Arbor by Fr. Charles Irvin and Fr. Alexander Miller. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Anthony De Bin of Farmington Hills and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Wright of Ann Arbor. The bride wore a full length white gown fashioned with empire waist and scooped neck, with a long train flowing from her shoulders.

Nola Stewart served as the bride's honor attendant with bridesmaids Sheri Archambault and Virginia Frost, clad in wrap-around gowns with layered skirts forming a V at the ankles. David Wright served as his brother's best man with groomsmen Steven Wright and Jonathan Wright, both brothers of the groom.

All flowers for the wedding party, church and reception were suitable for the Christmas motif.

The couple received guests at the Gandy Dancer, in Ann Arbor, before leaving on a wedding trip to Key West, Fla.

Chermside-Birkam

Dianne Elizabeth Chermside and George A. Birkam III were married on Dec. 9 in Marygrove College Chapel. Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. John Chermside of Puncney and Mr. and Mrs. George Birkam of Southfield.

For the afternoon ceremony, the bride wore an ivory, empire waist dress with Queen-Anne neckline and a cathedral length train. She wore a silk flower headpiece with veiling and carried a cascade of white roses, gardenias, lilies of the valley and baby breath.

Semple-Hills

Laurie Hills and Robert Semple were united in marriage in a candle-light ceremony on Dec. 2 in the Community Congregational Church in Lathrup Village.

The bride's gown was ivory Qiana with a pearl-trimmed bodice, accented-pleated skirt and chapel train. She wore a matching fingertip veil and carried a bouquet of ivory silk roses and bittersweet sprays.

In the British tradition, a piper was there to pipe the couple from the church to a reception at the Chalet of Farmington Hills.

After a wedding trip to Nassau, the couple will reside in Royal Oak.

Scoliosis Club hears doctor

The Scoliosis club of Southeastern Michigan will meet at the Administrative Services Building of Beaumont Hospital at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 2.

Dr. Maurice Castle, orthopedist will speak on "The Milwaukee Brace and the Importance of Exercise." The youth group will meet in the training room.

For more information, call Wilma Bannister of Southfield at 357-1532.

Spectrum Gallery displays pottery

Ceramist Barbara Gibson has been invited to display her work in Spectrum Gallery, 2320 Middlebelt, in Chatham Mall Square, during December and January.

Her works of stoneware, porcelain and raku are all strong and bold in appearance. Ms. Gibson studied in the United States and Puerto Rico, and for a while traveled as a national manufacturers representative demonstrating surface sculpturing.

She has had her art works in juried as well as invitational exhibits throughout Michigan.

Fridenberg-Skulsky

Mr. and Mrs. Eben Fridenberg of Southfield announce the engagement of their daughter, Carol Joyce, to Craig Steven Skulsky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Skulsky of Southfield.

Carol is a sophomore at Wayne State University. Her fiancé will graduate in June from the WSU School of Business Administration.

A June wedding is planned.
