(F)3B .....

Ż

STUDENT ART

Thursday, Jan. 25: Exhibition of art work by students from 17 Michigan in-dependent schools on display in Bir-mingham Bloomfield Art Association, 1516 Cranbrook, Birmingham, contin-ues through Feb. 3. No admission charge

BEST FACE FORWARD

Thursday, Jan. 25: "Put Your Best Face Forward," hair, skin and makeup grooming session geared for young adults, begins at 7:30 p.m. in Farming-ton Community Library on Liberty. No -charge.

USING THE LIBRARY

Thursday, Jan. 25: One-session work-shop teaches how to use business and investment information sources in Farmington Hills Community Library on Twelve Mile at 6:30 p.m. No charge. Registration is not necessary.

RESOURCE BOOMS

Thursday, Jan. 25: "Everything You Ever Wanted to Know About Resource Saturday, Jan. 27: Three Saturdays Rooms But Were Afraid to Ask," open of skiing sells in a package for $40 for

Backyard gardeners

can turn masters

Backyard gardeners can now be-ome "master gardeners" by attending n intensive training program offered y Michigan State University Exten-ion Service.

A team of agents from the service will provide 30 hours of training on a wide range of borticultural topics, such as lawns, flowers, house plants, landscaping, vegetables and fruits. Training sessions will begin Feb. 7. and there will be one session per week, 7-9 p.n. Wednesdays in the Oakland Schools Buildmag, just west of Poniac.

Andrew Freeburn, a 17-year-old who got a late start in scouting, attained the Boy Scouts highest award in Court of Honor ceremonies in Church of Christ in Farmington Hills.

he was wurking are the way working are the second s persons in fifth grade and up. Fee in-cludes transportation from Farmington Community Center to ML Brighton, les-sons and use of tows. Registrations are necessary by calling the center, 477-8404. meeting sponsored by Farmington Area Chapter of Michigan Association for Children with Learning Disabilities at 8 p.m. in Farmington Hills Commu-nity Library on Twelve Mile. No charge nity Li charge.

INTERFAITH WOMEN'S RETREAT Friday and Saturday, Jan. 26-27. In-terfaith Women's Retreat runs from 7:30 p.m. Thursday to 9 p.m. Friday in Mercy Center with Linda Thompson of Ward Presbyterian Church and Sr. Pa-tricia Bagley O SL. Lucy Church in St. Clair Shores. Weekend cost is 330. Res-ervations taken by calling Mercy Cen-ter, 476-8010.

Saturday, Jan. 27: Italian language class offered to kindergarteners through third graders at 11 a.m. and noon, in Farmington Hills Community Library on Twelve Mile. Class includes some lessons on Italian culture. Regis-trations are necessary through the library. library. HUNTED IN HOLLAND

ITALIAN LANGUAGE CLASS

WHO'S IN CHARGE?

Saturday, Jan. 27: "Hunted in Holland," mystery thriller film, shown as 2 p.m. in Farmington Hills Commu-nity Library on Twelve Mile for chil-dren. No charge. Friday, Jan. 26: "Who's in Charge of the Woman in Your Life?" three-ses-sion workshop, begins at 9:30 a.m. in Mercy Center, 28600 Eleven Mile. Fee of 38 may be mailed to Program Department, Mercy Center, in Farm-ington Hills. DINNER DANCE

Monday and Wednesday, Jan. 29 and 31: Open swimming on Mondays in North Farmington High School and on Wednesdays in Farmington High School for families, 7-8:30 p.m., and adults only until 9:15 p.m. Admission is 50 cents for children and teens; 75 cents for adults.

Monday and Thursday, Jan. 29 and Feb. 1: Karate lessons begin after school in Shiawassee Elementary School on Monday and in Kenbroke El-ementary School on Thursday for those from third to 21k grade. Pre-registra-tion is necessary by calling the Farm-ington Hills Parks and Recreation Department, 474-6115.

Monday through Thursday, Jan. 29 to Peb. 1: Alterschool classes for pres-choolers, called "A Time for Me," be-gin on Monday in Shiawassee Elemen-tary School; Tuesday at Gill; Wednes-day at Forest and Thursday at Ken-brook. Pre-registration is necessary by calling Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Department, 474-6115.

FLOWER ARRANGING

Monday, Jan. 29: The art of dried and silk flower arranging begins at 7.30 p.m. in Shiawassee Elementary School for teens and adults. Registration is necessary through Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Department, 474-6115.

INVESTING IN ANTIQUES

Tuesday, Jan. 30: "Investing in Antiques," lecture series with Jordan Humberstone, affiliated with Detroit Historical Museum and Greenfield Vil-lage, begins at 1 p.m. in Farmington Community Center. Registration is necessary through the center.

COMMISSION ON AGING

Tuesday, Jan. 30: Farmington Area Commission on Aging regular monthly meeting at 7:30 p.m. in Farmington City Hall, 25600 Liberty. Open. JERUSALEM FASHIONS

Tuesday, Jan. 30: Show of fashions from Jerusalem, sponsored by Metro-politan Detroit. Chapter of Hadassah, begins at 12:45 p.m. in Congreation Sharey Zedk in Southfield. Admission is by donation of $8 to Emphasis on Youth Education action of the done Youth Education, asked at the door. ENTERTAINING WITH A FLAIR

Wednesday, Jan. 31: Continental

.

Thursday, January 25, 1979

Wednesday, Jan. 31: "Nutritional." Food for Better Health," sessions begin " at 8:30 p.m. in Forest Elementary School cafeteria with Harry Zerbo. Fo Registrations are necessary through Farmington Hills Parks and Recre-ation Department. Wednesday, Jan. 31: The art of silk-screening classes begin at 7.30 p.m. in Kenbrook Elementary School's cateto-ria led by Lee Koski. Registrations are suggested, through Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Department, 474-6115.

FAMILY FUN NIGHT

NUTRITION

Friday, Feb. 2: Family Fun Night in-cludes working out in Mercy Center's gym and pool, 7:30-9:30 p.m. for $3 per family.

m.m.memos

SILKSCREENING

As anyone who knows me is aware-sometimes distressingly aware-I'm an enhusiastic fan of the form of hu-I can get of fur yshare of these genus in most situations, although I've found I rank about sixth in a family of six when it comes to rapid-fire pumy repartes. And it really makes my day when someone seeking news in this paper comes up with a worthy pun for the tille of an event or program. That's an almost sur-fire method of getting news into the paper, at least the part I edit.

news into the paper, at least the part I oti. One of these titles I enjoyed not too long ago was for a forum on solf-awareness sponsored by one of the area's YWOA branches. "How to Dig Your Whole," it was titled. A seminary in these parts invited in a priest author who was to discuss spir-ituality. It advised prospective listen-ers that the speaker had to his credit two books, one of which was titled. "Where We wee all the way home." Wever quite figured that one oat, but it makes and the second prime of the pur-sed in strong organized for the pur-sed in strong organized for the pur-sed in strong organized for the pur-be Lamaze method of childbirth proved with its new publication that it has a sense of humor. The newsletter is titled "The Partum Post." And from Cincinnat I received word" of a new recipe collection that might be used to chase winter blues and her-ald oncoming Valentine's Day. "Love; and Quiches" is the word-twisting title here.

Saks Fifth Avenue, Troy, Somerset Mall, Big Beaver at Coolidge

· ....

SKATE '79

FABRIC PAINTING

others. Enrollment is limited and pre-regis-tration is necessary by calling the ex-tension office, 858-0887. Participants will be sent an application blank for their official enrollment. Fee is $20.

Honor ceremonies in Church of Christ in Farmignon Hills. Freeburn was given the rank of Ea-gle Scout by Ken Milliken, veteran scoutmaster for Troop 179. Milliken described the attainment of the Eagle Award "as one of the final polishing touches in the commence-ment of adultibood." To have earned the Eagle Award from age 14, when Freeburn joined the twop, to age 11 was heralded as "a creditable accomplishment, one which lad to have had the full support and cooperation of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Madaleno." One of Freeburn a most difficult projects was to solve an adverse part-ing problem at the Church of Christ, as the was working toward the rank of Eagle.

church parking lot and adjacent grounds. Freeburn is nearly 18, and will con-tinue scouting as assistant scoutmas-

Andrew Freeburn (at left) accepts his job of assistant scoutmaster for Troop Eagle Award from Scoutmaster Ken 179. Milliken and prepares to take on the A total of 15 scouts were given prog-ress and service awards in the troop's Upon completing the training pro-gram, participants become a recog-nized master gardener when they have given 20 hours of educational service in gardening.

gardening. In 1978, Oakland County master gar-deners volunteered more than 600 hours while they helped about 4,000

Monday and Tuesday, Jan. 29 and 30: Four-session workshop on fabric paint-ing begins at 7:30 p.m. on Monday and at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday in Farmington Community Center with Barbara Car-ney. Reservations are necessary by Freeburn earns Eagle ranking Sunday, Jan. 28: Skate '79, to benefit the American Diabetes Association-Michigan Afiliate, runs from noon to 5 p.m. in Bonadventure Roller Rink on Halstead near Thirteen Mile. Applica-tion blanks for the skate-a-thon are now available in the rink.

. ]

is.

6

A TIME FOR ME

Saturday, Jan. 27: Eighth annual din-ner dance sponsored by Parmington Palcon Booster Club at 7:30 pm. in American Legion Hall, 31775 Grand River. All proceeds help support the Parmington High School sports teams. Tickets at §25 per couple available through Nancy Van Deusen, 474-4417. SATURDAY SKIING

Community Calendar

calling the center, 477-8404

RESUME WRITING

Monday, Jan. 29: One-session work-shop teaching participants how to ap-proach resume writing in systematic fashion begins at 7:30 p.m. in Mercy Center, 1860 Bleven Mile. Advance registration is necessary by calling the center, 476-8010. Workshop will be re-peated Feb. 8. Fee is $5.

MACHINE QUILTING

Monday, Jan. 29: Two-session work-shop teaching a fast and easy way to quilt using the sewing machine begins at 1 p.m. in Farmington Community Center with Peggy Freeman. Registra-tions are necessary through the center, 477-8404.

OPEN SWIMMING

KARATE