

Maybe it's just our imagination, but George looks a little depressed these days. It's probably because he doesn't buy as much as he used to. In fact, what used to take one of him now takes nearly two.

We can't do much about this situation except give you an idea how to put a few extra pictures of Washington in your pocket. Here's what we suggest: Check your home for the things that you no longer use—things that are still worth several dollars to someone who may need them—and place a low-cost classified ad with your friendly Observer & Eccentric ad taker. She'll be glad to help you word your ad for fast results. Then sit back and wait for the phone to ring.

We know we can't do anything to perk up old George, here, but when you find a little extra something in next month's budget, we guarantee you'll take time to smile.
