

Christmas-Pray

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Christmas of Farmington Hills announce the engagement of their daughter, Colleen Beth, to Randall Bruce Pray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard B. Pray of Livonia.

The bride to be is a sophomore at Oakland University. Her fiancé is self-employed in the snow removal and lawn maintenance business.

An August wedding is planned in Livonia's Clareneville United Methodist Church.

Battiat-Firman

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Battiat, of Farmington Hills, announce the engagement of their daughter Sue to Tom Firman of Pontiac.

The bride to be is employed with League Insurance Group and her fiancé is employed with General Motors.

A May wedding is planned.

Cornwall-Deighton

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Cornwall of Bentley Avenue, Livonia, announce the engagement of their daughter Kathryn Ross to Bruce Craig Deighton, son of Dr. and Mrs. Murray N. Deighton of Foxgrove Court, Farmington Hills.

The bride-elect is a 1973 graduate of Bentley High School and attended Northern Michigan University. She is completing a degree in nursing at Lansing Community College and is employed by Lansing General Hospital as a nurse technician.

Her fiancé, a 1973 graduate of North Farmington High School, earned degrees from Central Michigan University in 1977, and from Wayne State University in 1978. He is completing a doctorate in medical education at WSU and planning to attend Rush Medical College in Chicago in the fall.

They plan to be married June 16 in Ward United Presbyterian Church of Livonia.

Opperthausen-Wotring

Mayor and Mrs. Earl C. Opperthausen of Farmington Hills announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathy Lynn, to John Henry Wotring III, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Wotring Jr. of Westland.

The bride-elect is a graduate of North Farmington High School and Ferris State College. She is employed by Farmington Dermatologists. Her fiancé graduated from John Glenn High School and is advertising manager for Unistrut Corp. of Wayne.

They plan a May 4 wedding in First Presbyterian Church of Farmington.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF RETIRED PERSONS, Farmington Hills Chapter 2888, wants it to be known that the Tax Aide program offered by the chapter, from now through April 15, is available to all homebound persons.

Members on the tax aide committee have a schedule that is currently published in the Farmington Observer Community Calendar, stating dates, places and times of where seniors and handicapped can receive help in filling out their tax forms for 1978.

In addition to this service, homebound persons may call for help filling out their forms and a member of the committee will make a visit to their home.

Ivan Nylén, 476-0028, will make appointments.

FARMINGTON GARDEN CLUB will meet at 10 a.m. Monday, Feb. 5 in Farmington Community Center for a workshop on creating flowers from dried cornhusks.

rs. McLelland Morford from Flat Rock Garden Club will lead the workshop.

SENIOR CITIZEN'S DROP IN CENTER is open from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. every Monday and Wednesday in Masonic Temple, Grand River and Farmington Road, for bridge and pinocle games. Guests may bring a sandwich lunch if they wish. Beverages are furnished.

TUESDAY MUSICAL OF DETROIT salutes American composers in concerts set for 10:30 a.m. on Feb. 6 and 20 in Detroit Institute of Arts lecture hall.

Mrs. Harry Peets of Farmington will be one of the featured pianists for the Feb. 6 concert. She will play a finale of compositions for the piano; MacDowell's "The Eagle," Gotschalk's "LeBaronier," Ernest Bloch's "Waves" from Poem of the Sea and John Alden Carpenter's "Danza."

Mrs. Frederick F. Fordon of Grosse Pointe will take inquiries by calling her at 882-0194.

FARMINGTON MUSICALS has scheduled a two-part program for its salute to American composers at 12:30 p.m. Feb. 7 in Farmington Community Center.

The local musicals' February program is in keeping with "A Parade of American Music," when it joins musicals and music study clubs from all over the nation in the celebration for American composers.

The two-pronged program will salute both American art and music.

Victor Herbert selections will be sung by soprano Verna Roberts.

A program called "American Tapestry," saluting American artists will be commented on by Sandra Book.

The program is open to guests. Guests will be asked a donation of 50 cents at the door.
