Sheridan play opens

The Theatre Arts program of Oakland University will present Richard Brinsley Sheridan's romantic comedy "The Rivals" in a 10-performance run opening Feb. 15.

The 18th century comedy of manners will be performed Thursday-Sundays, Feb. 15-18, and Feb. 22-25 at 8:30 p.m. in the Studio Theatre of Vassar Hall. There will be 2:30 p.m. matinees Feb. 18 and 25.

The student cast will present a free preview performance at 8:30 p.m. on Feb. 14 for the benefit of area deaf persons. Experts will use sign language to present the action of the play to the audience.

Sheridan's reputation in the top rank of English comic writers rests chiefly on "The Rivals" and "The School for Scandal," plays that have enjoyed a continuing popularity from Sheridan's time to the present. "The Rivals" was first presented in 1775 at Covent Garden Theatre and "School for Scandal" was produced in 1777 at Drury Lane.

Action of "The Rivals" takes place at Bath, a fashionable resort in the west of England. The major characters include Kevin Dookery as Sir Anthony Absolute, Kathy Simmerman as Mrs. Malaprop, Christopher Howe as Captain Absolute, and Kim Werkman as the captain's love interest, Lydia Langish.

Tickets for the performances are priced for general admission and for OU students. For information call 377-2000.

Space costume adds color

In space-oriented costumes, creating a startling spectrum of color, the seven-member Mardi Gras will fill the Celebration Lounge with explosive sounds ranging from Broadway to disco 70 hits.

Mardi Gras begins a three-week engagement Monday, Feb. 12, and continues through Saturday, March 3, at the Celebration in the Detroit Plaza Hotel.

The Celebration presents non-stop Las Vegas lounge-style entertainment, with alternate show and dance sets. Located on the Detroit Plaza's Promenade Level, the lounge is open Monday-Saturday 7:30 p.m.-2 a.m. The first show begins at 8 p.m.
