

Sacred Heart alumnae set get-together

Old friendships and school day memories will be revived at the annual Academy of the Sacred Heart Alumnae Association cocktail party from 4-6 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 11.

More than 500 metropolitan Detroit couples are expected to join in the school parlor, 1250 Kensington, Bloomfield Hills.

Alumnae will visit with Sacred Heart headmistress, Sister Susan Maxwell, and other Sacred Heart sisters affiliated with Michigan's oldest independent school.

Greeting guests will be Mary Jo Dawson, director of Alumnae Relations, and Sally Morgan, president of the alumnae association.

Reservations are being taken by Mary Jane Gargaro, 644-4689.

Poet will be guest of Welcome Wagon

Max Ellison, a Michigan poet, will be guest speaker for Welcome Wagon Club of Farmington for the meeting which begins at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 11, in Farmington Community Library of Liberty.

Ellison will read his own works as well as works of other poets.

The meeting is open to residents of Farmington and Farmington Hills who have lived in the area less than a year.

Membership inquiries will be taken by calling Sue Nunzio, 474-5524.

Mitrachi women plan Italian night

Batya Chapter of American Mizrahi Women will have an "Italian Evening" with members of Michigan Opera Theatre performing for its annual paid-up membership dinner.

The event will begin at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, Feb. 13, in the home of the chapter president, Joanne Zuroff, 31455 Franklin Fairway, Farmington Hills.

Ready for the show

Hope Nabstoll (at left) fits Anne Burton with a hand-embroidered white linen suit that was first worn around the turn of the century for her role in Farmington Players' production of "The Importance of Being Earnest." Mrs. Nabstoll is in large part responsible for the players' large collection of authentic costumes where the wardrobe committee picked and choose for the Victorian period play. Ms. Burton takes the role of Lady Bracknell in the show that opens Feb. 16 and continues for three weekends. Tickets are available through the Players' box office, 477-1066.
