Dunn is far from satisfied, however, stating that he can better his times in both individual events. I'll take a little time though, as he has missed some recent meets due to a pulled muscle.
An all-state performer at Lathrup, Dunn has carried over his water wizardry to lead Albion's resurgence. Coach Willard Cooley put it simply, "It's a gifted swimmer."

MORT CRIM TALKS WITH:

"Detroit's New Americans"

Who are they? The Arabs. The Latinos. The Yugoslavs. The Koreans, And others.

Where do they live and work? How can we help them adjust? How long will it take them to realize their great American dream?

What do they bring to Detroit? And what brought them to Detroit possibly the most ethnically diverse city in the world?

Mort Crim looks into these questions in an informative News 4 special report, "Detroit's New Americans", starting Monday, February 5th, and continuing throughout this month.
