GLENN ALEXANDER

Mr. Alexander, 84, of Farmington Hills died July 22 at his home after a long illness.

He was one of the few remaining veterans who flew aerial combat missions over France in World War I. He was a fighter pilot in the Royal Flying Corps in France in 1917 and was later transferred to the newly formed U.S. Army Aviation Service which had only 35 pilots at the beginning of the year. During World War II he commanded fighter pilots.

He attended Ohio State University where he excelled in sports. He held the Big Ten record in pole vaulting and was in training for the Olympics when they were canceled during World War I. In 1917, he joined the Royal Canadian Air Force. He graduated from Ohio

State University in 1921 with a BA from Ohio State University. He was an instructor in athletics at OSU. He organized OSU's first gymnastic team.

Mr. Alexander was a member of the Ohio State Alumni Club for 58 years. He belonged to Delta Upsilon Fraternity for 59 years. He was a Mason in Akron Lodge of the Masonic Order for 62 years.

He retired from the Air Force as a full colonel.

Survivors include: wife, Mary Gertrude; daughter, Mrs. Sally Norton; grandson Thomas Alexander Norton.

Services were conducted on July 25 at Heene-Sundquist Funeral Home, Farmington. Rev. James Wright of St. Alexander's Roman Catholic Church conducted the services. Burial was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Southfield.

I'm Sorry, you'll just have to live with it!

OR

There is Nothing Originally Wrong With You
There is Nothing Further That Can Be Done
Maybe It'll Go Away in Time

Have you ever been told: "You're just getting old" — "It's heredity" — "It's old age" — "Nothing can be done." — or, "You'll just have to live with it!"

Chiropractic treatment has rescued millions of Americans from years of needless suffering. Nine million Americans went to chiropractors last year to find out if chiropractic could help them.

Chiropractic screening tests are simple and painless... and they can quickly indicate if you might have spinal distortions, and thereby be likely to respond to chiropractic care.

Find out whether or not you really do. "Have to live with it." Call today for an appointment. There is no charge for consultation, preliminary screening tests, a report of findings on these tests, and recommendations, if treatment or further examination is indicated. Almost all health insurance policies cover chiropractic care! All fees thoroughly explained prior to any additional service being rendered!
