Harrison High marching band revs up for fall

Harrison High School Marching Band is finalizing plans to travel to Camp Emery where members will prepare for the 1979 marching band season.

The marching band is an extra-curricular activity that provides another kind of musical experience for the young musician.

Music students who have not signed up still have time to get their names registered with Paul Notestine, by calling him at 476-1729.

The band camp is open to all incoming students at Harrison who wish to be part of the marching band. This includes not only musicians, but flag carriers and twirlers as well.

The band will play for home football games, Band Day at Ann Arbor, and the Harrison Band-O-Rama.

Band Camp begins Monday, Aug. 20, and winds up Sunday, Aug. 26.

J. Orchard Ridge Campus, Oakland Community College. Dance is sponsored as a public service by Farmington Area Arts Commission. No charge.
