

Carnival Day fun for youths

Some 364 youngsters participated in the Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation annual Carnival Day on Aug. 1.

Children from 12 play centers gathered at City Park to participate. They competed for prizes in track and field events during the morning.

Events included three-legged races, sack jump, baseball accuracy toss, lost shoe find, backward crab race and wheel barrel race.

Prizes were awarded to first and second place winners in five age brackets: 6-7, 8-9, 10-11, 12-13, 14-15. There were two categories per bracket, one for boys, one for girls. A total of 154 prizes were awarded.

The afternoon was spent trying to win candy prizes at 12 carnival booths designed and made by children from the play centers. Booths included: putt-putt golf, bean-bag toss, sponge toss, squirt-the-candle out, balloon dart toss, birthday rummy, toss-balls-into-slots, ring throws, marble roll, ring-the-bottle upright and shoot the card.

The summer program ended with a trip to Bob-Lo on Aug. 3. Approximately 350 to 400 made the trip.

Concentrating on his putt is John Oman, 13, a Wooddale student.
