Laird-Rail

Chefan-Goniwich

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stephen Chefan, Sr., of Farmington announce the engagement of their daughter, Rebecca Marie, to Alan Charles Goniwich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Goniwich of Farmington Hills.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Farmington High School and a senior at Oakland Institute of Cosmetology, employed with Jack Stevens Clothes. Her fiancé is a graduate of Harrison High School and attended Michigan State University while employed with C & W Lektra Battery. He will enter University of South Florida this fall.

A September wedding is planned in Nardin Park United Methodist Church.

Viening-Patton

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Viening of Farmington Hills announce the engagement of their daughter Vicki Lynn to Patrick Michael Patton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Patton.

The bride to be is a graduate of Hope College. Her fiancé is a graduate of Michigan State University, and is a student there doing graduate work.

An August wedding is planned in Northwestern Baptist Church, in Southfield.

Jacqueline Haarala and Tom Joseph were wed in Nardin Park United Methodist by Pastor William Frayer. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Haarala of Farmington Hills, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Joseph, of Farmington Hills.

The bride wore a Priscilla gown of silk organza fashioned with Alencon lace on her long sleeves, fitted bodice, bordering the hem of her long flowing skirt and edging her cathedral length veil. She carried a cascade of white tea roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Robin Haarala served as her sister's maid of honor with bridesmaids Julie Saldana, Karen Kennedy, Karen Marich and Carol McDonough, all clad in mint green gowns with chiffon capes.

Brad Cinto served as best man with groomsmen Ron Lowe, Ray Goldstone, Harry Alcorn and Joel Haarala.

The bride has attended University of Michigan and Oakland Community College and is employed with Alcan Aluminum of Southfield.

The groom attended Wayne State University and is now studying at Creighton University, in Nebraska, majoring in pharmacy.

The couple received guests in Roma's of Bloomfield before leaving on a wedding trip to Toronto, Ont. They will make their home in Omaha, Neb.

Dorothy Jean Rail and Michael Edward Laird were wed in Brightmoor Tabernacle June 2. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Rail of Farmington Hills and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Laird of Farmington Hills.

The bride wore a gown of white organza with lace bodice. Her headpiece, trimmed in lace, was topped with silk flowers.

RoseAnn Nabozny served as maid of honor with bridesmaids Shelley Rail, Donna Voskuhl, Lisa Gonzales and Terri Bourke.

The newlyweds received guests in Daniel A. Lord Knights of Columbus Hall, in Livonia, before leaving on a wedding trip to Florida. They will make their home in Walled Lake.

Symphony hosts community event

The Detroit Symphony will host a "Community Day" in Birmingham at Shain Park, corner of Merrill and Bates, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., Aug. 10.

This special event will be an old-fashioned summertime park activity with coffee, tea, lemonade, and cookies provided by the symphony. Volunteer hostesses will distribute sales brochures describing the orchestra's upcoming season, and 10 new symphony albums will be offered as prizes.

In addition, information on the symphony's new Birmingham shuttle bus service to Ford Auditorium will be available from a SEMTA representative.

Mrs. R. Jamison Williams of Birmingham is chairman of the Birmingham committee for the symphony. Committee members are Mrs. John J. Riccardi, Mrs. Philip Caldwell, Mrs. Henry C. Johnson, Mrs. Paul Mirabito, Mrs. Ernest Jones and Mr. John Courson.

The Detroit Symphony has established a central, ly-located full-service office on the second floor of the Reid Building at 600 N. Woodward. Office hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays, and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturdays. The telephone number is 642-2208.

"What do you call those armored cars they use in war?"

"You mean tanks?"

"You're welcome!"

The joke is an old one, but it keeps cropping up in our family and it's always a great delight if we can catch someone unawares. As in the following conversation:

"I have to go out — Have you seen my things?"

"My things?"

"You're welcome." Or maybe:

"What do you want for your birthday dinner?"

"Lamb shanks."

"What kind of lamb?"

"Shanks." "You're welcome... well, by now you begin to get the drift."

I tried once to catch the man of our house when he was preparing an outdoor meal and asked for the barbecue tongs.

"What is it you need?"

"YOU know what I need?"

In fact, when recently he requested the same equipment from our daughters, he tried a different tack and asked for the big tweezers. They knew what he meant too.

But the reason for writing of this matter is to report that now the family joke is fully documented.

By MARGARET MILLER

For my recent birthday, our son-in-law knew just what I wanted — a wooden box with a cover to set on the patio and hold our assorted barbecue equipment. He not only had the insight but the ability to make such a box, the present brought in was a beautiful barbecue tool-binder, painted a pottery-red to match their garage and our redwood furniture.

I was so pleased it took a minute to note that our daughter had lettered it at the top with the inscription: "Tongs 'n' things."

I thought when I saw it I was being pretty quick on the draw. "O tong you," I told them.

"Read the bottom of the box," daughter said. And there it was, way ahead of me. "You're welcome."

From here on in I get lost in family conversational gambits. I'll at least have my box to fall back on.
