

Community House trip sees 'terrific Toronto'

The Community House refers to it as a "Terrific Toronto Weekend," and is inviting interested persons to join the annual jaunt to Toronto, Friday-Sunday, Sept. 28-30.

The trip has been planned at a time when fall colors and weather should enhance the cosmopolitan city.

Included in the Toronto package is round-trip transportation (via chartered, air-conditioned motor-coach), accommodations at the Four Seasons-Yorkville Hotel (located on the edge of Yorkville), dinner at It's a Yorkville Restaurant on Friday evening, Sunday dinner at Captain John's River Boat Restaurant, sightseeing of Toronto and harbor boat cruise, box lunch en route to Toronto, all taxes, tips and baggage handling. The per person price for the package is $160 (double occupancy).

Strolling families, camera-toting tourists, picnicking office workers, squirrel-feeding children and zig-zagging cyclists are all species indigenous to Toronto. Known as the "people city," Toronto is at once a blend of the old and the new and boasts safe streets to enjoy by day and night.

HIGH ON THE LIST of places for strolling and people-watching is Yorkville, a village within a city. This colorful area is filled with renovated town-houses, boutiques, quiet courtyards, restaurants and art galleries. Other points of interest include the Royal Ontario Museum with its significant collection and a leader in Egyptology; the adjoining McLaughlin Planetarium with a quiet wooded walkway and ivy-covered buildings; Chinatown, with the sights and sounds of another culture and a great area for exploring Oriental shops and restaurants; and Eaton Center, designed around two of the city's most prominent landmarks in keeping with the city's drive for architectural preservation.

The Canadian National Tower is one of the world's tallest free-standing structures, (1,815 feet) with indoor and outdoor observation decks, a revolving restaurant at the summit and family fun arcade at the base. The glass-fronted elevators afford a heart-stopping ride upward.

The Ontario Science Centre is impressive, its setting a beautiful ravine; the architecture futuristic, clean and startling; and the interior fascinating. All things pertaining to the world of scientific knowledge are presented in a stimulating manner which invites involvement, in keeping with the center's slogan, "Please touch." Working models, computers, lectures, demonstrations and film shows are included.

For Community House guests interested in nightlife, the city offers everything from top jazz artist to the disco beat, relaxing in a rooftop lounge like the Odyssey at the Four Seasons-Yorkville, with spectacular views of the city at night, as well as music and dancing and O'Keefe Center, with an array of talent to light up any stage. A multitude of nightclubs offer a variety of live talent.

Tour reservations may be made at the Community House, 380 S. Bates, Birmingham. For more information, call 644-5832.

CN Tower is spectacular by day or night.
