

Pinehoff tires of 2nd best, looking for gold

Pinehoff, ranked approximately 15th in his age group nationally as a 16-year-old.

The National Grass Courts championship tournament marks the end of a summer of competition for Pinehoff. He starts school at Trinity University in Texas immediately after the tournament.

Pinehoff chose Trinity because of its tennis program.

They have five returning All-Americans from last year's team that lost in the NCAA finals to UCLA, he said. "I have my work cut out for me for sure."

Although there is a professional career for Pinehoff looming in the future, he intends to stick with school for a while.

"Unless I improve a lot," he said, "I'll probably go to school for four years. Unless I win the NCAA or something like that, I'll probably stay in school."
