

NFH Cheers Change Tone

FARMINGTON The make-up of Junior varsity cheerleaders at North Farmington High School has a new format this year. No longer an all-sophomore squad, the team includes two seniors and a junior.

Those with more experience will give some pointers to the new members thus improving general performance.

Captains this year are seniors Ruth and Beth Bowles; the junior is June Fedelson.

Sophomores are Dianne Mathe, Sandee Stegler, Dottie Spencer, Nancy Such, Marit Daumler, Sue Kahal, and Jana Scituro.

NFH Students

FARMINGTON North Farmington High School announced formation of a new organization, the Contemporary Affairs Club. About 20 students attended the first meeting.

Purpose of the group is to have students become more informed about current events. GIGI Panush is acting president, and advisor is David Finney.

Already, student members have decided to adopt an Indian orphan for the year. Financial support is expected to be underwritten by proceeds from a "home movie" festival.

2 Win Early Promotions

FARMINGTON Army Privates Samir H. George and Lawrence A. Kaczor, both with Co. D, 8th Battalion, 2nd Brigade at Fort Bragg, N.C., have achieved accelerated promotion while undergoing basic training here.

Each was promoted to private E-2 by finishing in the top one-third of his company in Infantry training.

Kaczor is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C.C. McGee Jr. of 2804 Danford in Farmington, and George is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John George of 3730 Harlan Dr. in Farmington.

Crosby Named Naval Aviator

FARMINGTON Navy Lt. (junior grade) Jeffrey L. Crosby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Crosby of 3405 State, Farmington, was designated a naval aviator at ceremonies at the Naval Air Station, Kingsville, Tex.

While stationed at Kingsville as a student aviator, he received instruction in instrument navigation, aircraft carrier landing qualification, air-to-ground gunnery and rocketry and air-to-air tactics and gunnery.

He was assigned to Training Squadron 22, one of three training squadrons based at NAS Kingsville.

Wins Art Prize

FARMINGTON Wendy Kornmiller, a senior at North Farmington High School, was a winner recently in the Saginaw Valley Art Show. She received a second prize of $100.

Her entry, an abstract felt pen drawing titled "The Group," was submitted by art instructors Mrs. Carolyn Buesar and Daryl Chase.

The state-wide contest was open to high school and college students.

Near-Miss

The planet Pluto cuts across Neptune's path periodically but the two planets miss colliding by a comfortable 240 million miles. Pluto will actually come closer to the sun than Neptune from 1969 to 2009.

Dems Will Discuss Sex Ed

FARMINGTON The second and concluding program on sex education in the schools will be presented by the Farmington Democratic Club at its regular meeting at 8 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 6.

The meeting will be held in the Farmington Community Center, Farmington Rd. north of 10 Mile.

This month's program will feature discussion in favor of a sex education program in the schools. The speaker will be Dr. Jack Cleveland, director of curriculum in the River Rouge school system.

Until recently Dr. Cleveland was in the Farmington school system where he held the position of director of adult education and federal programs.

Farmington Democratic Club Chairman Allen Sipher invited all interested persons to attend the meeting. He said a question period will follow Dr. Cleveland's talk.

Sipher recalled that the Democratic club gave opponents of sex education an opportunity to address the club at the September meeting.

Ed Secretaries Answer Questionnaires

FARMINGTON Farmington educational secretaries joined other Oakland members of the county association at a dinner meeting Oct. 21.

Questionnaires presented to the group ascertained that a majority would like to continue the fall workshop even though it will be necessary to hold it during the evening.

They also voted to retain Institute days during Easter vacation and to hold the annual dinner meeting in October.

Other questions resulted in decisions to have elections in May or June, continue to celebrate "Dosses' Night," and to split the county association into two groups.
