

Course is a challenge

SIXTH HOLE: Men - 217 yards, par 3; Women - 195 yards, par 3. A drainage ditch runs along the left side of the fairway the length of the hole. Tall, dense trees have to be avoided on the right. A trap lies to the right of the green.

EIGHTH HOLE: Men - 170 yards, par 3; Women - 155 yards, par 3. A good, fair par three, the green is well-trapped and the hole is not excessively long. The putting surface has many undulations, so putting could be a problem depending on pin placement.

NINTH HOLE: Men - 400 yards, par 4; Women - 330 yards, par 4. A good driving hole, the only real problem area is the fence that runs along the left side of the fairway. There is plenty of room for error on the right. The route to the green is fairly straight and the green is guarded by three traps.

TENTH HOLE: Men - 475 yards, par 5; Women - 450 yards, par 5. Very similar to the first hole, the 10th gets one started on the back nine with a good chance for a par, birdie with a little luck.

TWELFTH HOLE: Men - 435 yards, par 4; Women - 350 yards, par 4. Dogleg left, there is plenty of room for stray shots until one comes to the green. A large trap blocks the entire left front of the putting surface.

ELEVENTH HOLE: Men - 390 yards, par 4; Women - 350 yards, par 4. This is the prettiest hole on the course and the second most difficult. Almost a mirror of the second, trees line both side of the fairway, so an accurate tee shot is essential.

THIRTEENTH HOLE: Men - 535 yards, par 4; Women - 320 yards, par 4. A severe dogleg left (almost a 90 degree turn) awaits golfers here. Constantists may choose to play far left in an effort to shave some distance by avoiding the fairway and the dogleg.

FOURTEENTH HOLE: Men - 265 yards, par 3; Women - 138 yards, par 3. A challenging short hole, the 14th places a premium on an accurate shot from the tee. There is very little room for error and a poorly played initial shot will almost certainly result in trouble.

FIFTEENTH HOLE: Men - 375 yards, par 4; Women - 330 yards, par 4. Those who had trouble keeping the ball straight on 14 will welcome the 15. A dogleg left, there are few trees to deal with and plenty of room across the fairway.

SIXTEENTH HOLE: Men - 125 yards, par 3; Women - 125 yards, par 3. A deceiving hole with a wide green and a wide fairway, many golfers will make the mistake of leaving their tee shots short.

PARALLEL TRAPS: border the fairway about 130 yards from the green, which is guarded by a trap on the right side and the back left.

WINDY OR WET: conditions could make club selection difficult.
