Glenn again challenges for title

Don't underestimate the football Rockets.

"Some people have counted us out already. They say we have lost too many players. We did lose an awful lot of people, but I don't think you can ever count us out," said Westland John Glenn coach Chuck Gordon.

The Rockets, runnersup last season to North Farmington in the Northwest Suburban League football, will probably field a strong and competitive squad again this year.

Gordon's squad com-piled an 8-1 overall record last fall.

"We did graduate a lot of kids, but the players returning are mostly the good right now. They have been pushing each other hard. We should have a solid quarterback this fall," said Gorfon. Russ Hall also a center, is a 5-11, 190-pound senior. Dye, also a tight end, is a 6-2, 205-pound senior. Greg Walters and Scott Thornton have shown potential as running backs, according to Gordon. Walters, a senior, will also see action as a defensive back. Thornton is an experienced returning quiback. He is also a senior. perryman is also on the offensive and defensive lines. The senior stands 6-2 Leidel plays quarterback. The senior shattling for that spot along with junior Rich calong with junior Rich Chischer.
