Community Calendar

EARLY CHILDHOOD CENTER

day, Aug. 30: Last day of regis-or fall term in Fairview Early od Center, located in Fairview

Elementary School and sponsored by Farmington Public Schools, with morning and afternoon sessions available for 3-to-5-year-olds. Registration and inquiries answered at 626-8335.

Thursday through Tuesday, Aug. 30-ept. 4: Used book sale offers more an 100,000 volumes in the annual event sponsored by Brandeis Universi-ty National Women's Committee, Greater Detroit Chapter, during regu-lar shopping hours in Ed-12 Mall, Tele-graph and 12 Mile roads, Southfield.

PSYCHIC HEALING

Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 4-5: Psychic healing demonstration and lec-ture with Henry Rucker at 8 p.m. Tues-day and psychic healing workshop at 7 p.m. Wednesday in Northwest Unitarip.m. Wednesday In Northwestern at Nine and Ober Half Mile, Southfield, sonored by Southfield, southfield, sonored by Southfield, southfield, sonored by Southfield, southfield, sonored by Southfield, southfield, southfield, all Pro- Market and the Southfield, southfield, all the door for the lecture. Reservations at $20 each are necessary for the workshop; call Ruth Beneman, 274-4971.

Tuesday, Sept. 4: Auditions for all junior and senior high school musicians interested in joining the Farmington Community Band's 1979-80 season begins at 7:30 pm. in Harriston High School's Band Room, 12 Mile and Orchard Lake roads. Appointments are not necessary.

COMMUNITY CENTER REGISTRATION

Thursday and Friday, Sept. 6-7. In-person registrations taken for all class-es and special events offered by Farm-ington Community Center this fall from 10 a.m. 8 p.m. each day. Teachers who will be leading arts and crafts classes display their work from 10 a.m. 230 p.m. Thursday only. Registra-tions continue by mail and phone until all classloads are filled. Classes begin the week of Sept. 24.

DIABETIC YOUTH

Thursday, Sept. 6: Classes for diabetic youth and their family members begin at 7:30 p.m. and run for six Thursdays in Oakland County Health Division, 27725 Greenfield Road, Southfield. No charge, but reservations are necessary by calling the division's education office, 424-7054. Open to all persons who are residents of Oakland County.

FLOWER SHOW

Thursday through Saturday, Sept. 6-8: "Stems and Gems V," flower show by Royal Oak Branch of Women's National Farm and Garden Association runs throughout regular shopping hours in Twelve Oaks Mall, Novi. No charge.

ART AUCTION

with wine and hors discovers privilege at 8 p.m. spensored by St. Gerald Catholic Church parish, in the church, 2100 Farmington Road, and coordinated by Gallery Art Center Decause of 40.00 asked at the door

FOOTBALL PACEAGE

Saturday, Sept. 3. Micromann, issued Farmington Hills City. Hall, st. 10.40 am for the MSU st. Illuson Southall game, and returns about 5.35 pm. Package proceduciests at 184 sept. Southough Farmington Hills. Farms and neutrough Farmington Hills. Farms and Recreation of fice. 6764113. Offer are peaced for MSU vs. Creg. or game 30 urday. Sept. 13.

ARTSTART PRESCHOOL

Monday, Sept. 10. parents and pre-choolers are invited to meet the frame ers and took the famility of Artiston V. 10 am. in Mercy Center 10. Mole in Middlebelt reads print of fair regions tion. Artistance offers treatly embre ment programs for 3 to 3 years of the

ARTS COMMISSION

Toesday, Sept., 41. Farmony on Anna Arts. Commission regular monthly meeting at 10 min. Farmong on H. O. City Hall, 31350 of Min. Proof Cover all interested persons

FASHION SHOR

Wednesday, Sept. 11. Fashing this of the latest looks in grants and parterns for men and women from ten merchants in Westland Capter in 28 center mail, at $12 am and 70 m.

MEMBERSHIP TEA

Wednesday, Sept. 13. Membernation for prosperior members and puests of the Fartnington Mulicade at 12:00 pm in Detroit Baptin Many 2014 13 Mile Read 30 charge Reservations are not necessary. Clin membership incourse call Visian Manyaring, 477-4139.

MARATHONING

Wednesday, Sept 12 Maratining lecture and discussion committee Tital Runner series for the mores and jogger from 16 pm in 1741 Runner Franklin Shopping Plata, Northwest em Highway and 12 Mile 1742 No charge.

nck into time is offered by Farmington Community Center who sign up for a guided tour through Amish Acres in Nap-pance, Ind. The all-day outing is a something new listed in the center's brochure of fall classes and special events.

Mattille Tolograph at Long Lake Rd. (18-Mile)

A visit to historic Amish Acres is on the center's fall agenda

A visit to Indiana's Arabib Acres, fore them, where time stopped a century gag, is on the Farabington Community's schedule for Tuesday, Sept. 25.

The bus scaves at 8 p.m. for the fall civing care with the community and the farabing the second ind., where 2,000 old-order Armish still cling to 17th century European lolk customs, roligious beliefs and clothing styles.

The community lives without electricity, cars, soil-powered farm machinery, and members grow all attractions and foreign the community their own food like their forefathers be-well, Amish clothing, butter churns in the summer kitchen and hand-made, qulits.

The stone barn, built in 1876, retains its hand-hewn timbers, grainery, mows, stalls, sleigh and buggy, and is com² plete with its animals.

THE OUTDOOR area is filled with THE OUTDOOR area is silled with those who practise the plenes will be of the Amish in the amoke house, the fruit and grain drying sied, brick ovens, cider mill and root cellar. Reservations will be taken by calling Apple butter bollers will be in use along the hand-split rail fence near the old-fashloned orchard, which also hous-es an operating wind mill.

Package priced tickets are $43 a per-son, which includes transportation, the guided tour and lunch. The bus leaves from the west parking lot of Oakland Community College, off Farmington Road, and is expected to return there at about 8 p.m.

open Mon., Thum., Fri. 'til 9 • 644-7370

