

Mork from Ork is everywhere on ABC-TV

Mork (Robin Williams) gets a lot of attention from orphans who have their own live-in angel (Jimmy Brogan) in the premiere episode of "Out of the Blue."

TV's "Mork" Robin Williams, who grew up in Birmingham, will be all over the tube Sunday, Sept. 9.

He will be a special guest star on the new ABC-TV comedy/fantasy series "Out of the Blue" 7-8 p.m. and later that evening compete for an Emmy on the 31st Annual Emmy Awards 8:30-11 p.m.

A special one-hour premiere episode will introduce "Out of the Blue."

"Mork and Mindy" the smash hit comedy series has moved to a new time, 8-8:30 p.m. Sundays for the fall season, and will be seen Sept. 9 following "Out of the Blue" and before the Emmys.

Robin Williams, star of "Mork and Mindy" (shown with co-star Pam Dawber) has been nominated for an Emmy as comedy lead.

Ron Coden plays Alden's

Detroit area singer Ron Coden will be featured at Alden's Alley in downtown Royal Oak Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays beginning Sept. 5. Coden, who has been performing for the last 15 years, presents a program of contemporary music with an emphasis on comedy. He is accompanied by Steve Fava on bass and Ron Blight on guitar.

An Oak Park resident, Coden has been a regular entertainer in night spots in the Detroit area.

Civic Center offers events

The first concerts of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra's 24th season in Ford Auditorium and the last four weekend Ethnic Festivals are among the variety of events in Detroit's Civic Center in September.

At Ford Auditorium, the Detroit Symphony Orchestra will open its 66th season Thursday, Sept. 20, under the baton of Antal Dorati.

Chamberlain

IT DIDN'T TAKE LONG for Nancy Wedneski to become one of Chamberlain's most productive salespeople.

SHE JOINED the staff of Chamberlain's Farmington Hills-Franklin Office in May, 1977. In her first full year, 1978, her sales participation totaled over 2.7 million dollars which earned Nancy membership in the elite President's Club.

THIS INSTANT SUCCESS is attributable to NANCY WEDNESKI her knowledge of the changing market, a winning way with clients and just plain hard work.

BORN AND RAISED in the Detroit area, Nancy attended Oakland University and lives in West Bloomfield North Potomac Green. Husband Bob, past president of the home owners association, is associated with the La Salle Machine Tool Company. Completing the Wedneski family are Lori, 18, David, 14 and four-year old Billy.

A DUPLICATE BRIDGE player of considerable skill, Nancy also bows to share Bob's favorite sport, and he plays bridge to keep Nancy company.
