

Birmingham Town Hall announces new season

Thursday, September 13, 1979

(O-6D)

Calif., and a lecturer in the Department of Psychiatry at the UCLA Medical Center.

Bob Wright has been performing for theater and television audiences for the last couple of decades. He will present his one-man show "Musical Theatre Cavalcade."

This is a one-man show giving highlights of Broadway hits, as well as stories of backstage life with composers and actors.

Wright made his Broadway debut as the romantic lead in "Make Mine Manhattan." Albums bearing the Wright signature include the Victor collection of songs from the Manhattan musical "Miss Liberty."

All programs will be presented at 11 a.m. Thursdays in the Birmingham Theatre, 215 S. Woodward, Birmingham. For season ticket information call the town hall office at 644-1544. Season ticket holders may purchase a guest ticket for the lecture and luncheon by calling the Town Hall office in advance of each talk.

Information on locations of the luncheons may be obtained from the Town Hall office.

This is the 26th season for Birmingham Town Hall, which is sponsored by St. Anne's Guild of St. James Episcopal Church.

Dr. Barbara Brown will discuss biofeedback and how it can help prevent illness.

Thomas Hoving will talk about Tut.

Comtessa de Romanones will describe personal adventures.

Bob Wright will take listeners "backstage" with his program called "Musical Cavalcade."
