Pear picking

Pears ripen from the inside outward, so don't keep pears until they're softened on the outside - by then, they may be too soft and tasteless.

Use pears while still firm but not hard. When picked green and ripened off the tree, pears have a smooth texture. Tree ripened pears are often coarse and gritty.

Don't be misled by scars, minor surface blemishes or coarsening of the skin - that's nature's way of protecting

Injuries and mistakes plague Eaglet gridders

Mistakes and injuries are about the only things Orchard Lake St. Mary's football team has had plenty of so far this season.

The Eaglets once again beat themselves as they dropped their Catholic C-D League opener to Detroit Benedictine, 20-0, last Sunday at Benedictine.

It was the second straight loss for OLSM, and the second time the Eaglets lost the game on their own errors. Detroit Country Day took advantage of two bad punt snaps to score a pair of touchdowns in OLSM's opening loss.

"We just can't turn the ball over," St. Mary Coach Al Dicken said. "We made mistakes we just can't afford to make if we're going to win."

"Our offense did not move the football and it got us in a hole."

Last week's starting quarterback, sophomore Carl Pellegrini, was unable to play that position because of an injured elbow suffered in the opening game. Senior Jim Kinville started in his place and was intercepted in the first period, setting up Benedictine's first touchdown.

Quarterback Tony Mac accounted for the score on a three-yard run, then booted the first of his two extra point conversions to give Benedictine a 7-0 lead.

The score remained the same until midway through the final quarter, when the larger Benedictine team which, according to Dicken, "physically outmanned us," wore down OLSM and scored a pair of touchdowns to put the game away.

Pellegrini threatened OLSM with its only offensive threat of the game, intercepting a Mac pass in the second quarter and returning it to the Benedictine 25-yard line. But a fumble ended that drive and, as it turned out, the interception ended Pellegrini's season. He broke his shoulder and collarbone when he was tackled on the play.

The poor offensive showing overshadowed a fine effort by the OLSM defense, which allowed Benedictine only 134 total yards. Senior co-captain Matt Martin had a superb game with 11 first hit tackles, including seven for losses, and seven assists.

But the bigger Benedictine squad began to take its toll on OLSM. Besides Pellegrini, fullback-linebacker Bob Selakowski bruised a knee and Martin suffered a slight concussion and missed much of the third quarter.

Benedictine had 116 yards on the ground to 60 for OLSM, with Mac completing five of 14 passes for 18 yards, with one touchdown and one interception. Kinville hit on only three of 16 tosses for 32 yards and was intercepted once. The Eaglets also lost two fumbles.

St. Mary will open its home season Sunday with a 2 p.m. contest against St. Andrew.
