

Tabling for the future

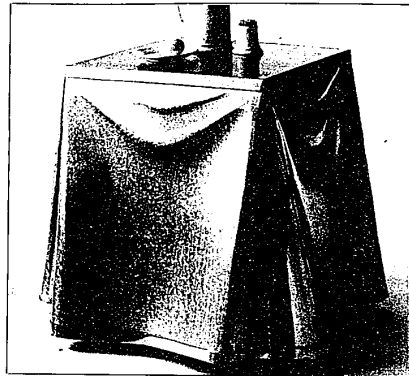

Whimsical designs to delight both owner and guests lead the list of fun conversation pieces. But, these are decorative as well as functional. There's a bit of trompe d'oeil in the draped one at right. It's actually galvanized metal in a silver gray. The drum table, industrial plaster, is heavy enough to offer a solid base for a phone, a plant or a decanter of wine. Both are by John Dickerson and Associates, available at Dondhia Inc., Design Center, Troy.
