

Clarenceville surprise

Clarenceville High School senior Gisell Rose (center) was surprised when she was announced Saturday as the 1979 homecoming queen. She received a tiara and bouquet of roses and the congratulations of two of her court members, Kathy Laurie (left) and Janet Henley. The girls' smiles turned to frowns later in the afternoon as Woodhaven beat the Trojans 21-15. (Photo by Bob Karol)

Gunderson named Chrysler planner

Farmington resident Charles Gunderson has been appointed director of car product planning for the Chrysler Corp.

He will be responsible for car line product planning, export and import product planning, and long range car planning and strategy. He formerly was manager of car line planning.

Since joining Chrysler in 1958, he has served as a styling planning coordinator, studio engineer, product cost analyst and has been a product planning manager since 1971.

Gunderson is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin with a B.S. degree in mechanical engineering.
