Musicale raises money with rummage sale

The Farmington Musicale will support its 1979-80 community projects with proceeds from a rummage sale, Oct. 12-13. Sale hours are from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. in Orchard United Methodist Church of Farmington, 30405 Farmington Rd.

Beverages and baked good will also be on sale.

Proceeds from the sale enable the Musicale to award several hundred dollars each year in scholarships to young musicians in the area.

The group also supports Farmington Community Band, Farmington Community Center, the Oakway Symphony and the Detroit Symphony Orchestra with money gifts.

In spite of its name, membership in the Farmington Musicale is not restricted to residents. The 68 members of the group come from all surrounding communities.

The next fund-raiser on the musicale's agenda is a concert, with member-artists doing the performing, set for late next month.
