Onward and upward. That seems to be the theme of the bowlers at Westland Bowl these days as the string of 700 series continues.

Eight of these barrier-breaking performances were recorded during the past week and two of them came in the Tri-City men's league.

And, to make the scoring even more important, Jim Mijal set a new high for the house when he linked counts of 278, 258 and 224 for 760.

For the first two games, Mijal was in a stirring duel with Bob Schmidt, who was bowling on the same pair of lanes. Schmidt started with 267 and followed with 242. But then the pace got too hot and he dropped to 197 for a 711 — 49 pins behind the leader.

One other 700 series was placed on the books during the past week when Gary Krause, a 195 average bowler at Country Lanes, fired games of 213, 246 and 257 for a 716 series.

AT WONDERLAND, the other high scoring house, Tom Vallone missed the magic 700 by 10 pins in the classic when he put together games of 242, 244 and 204 for 690. At that figure, he needed one more game to reach 700. While this duel was going on, George Stefan's R&H Machine rolled a 3,176 to pace the teams.

SCORING IN THE Ladies Major League at Beech Lanes reached a new low Wednesday night when Geri Beattie's 606, that included a 235 game, was high for the night.

Norma Johnson of Plymouth shared high single honors with Pat Rizzo. Each turned in a 235.

THE JUNIOR HOUSE LEAGUE at

Westland furnished plenty of competition this past week when Larry Pratt finally ended up as the pacesetter with games of 217, 220 and 238 for 695. His big closing game enabled him to beat John Ray who had counts of 274 and 224 in 667.

In the ladies classic, Gloria Gronan led the parade with a 258 in 600. She was followed by Ruth Worley who had 222 in 584.

Others who fired double century games were Betty Hoerner with 227 and Jane Martin with 225.

In the ladies Wednesday league, Ruby Nelson set the pace with 227 in 567. Rose Hale was next with 505.

Sharing the spotlight for the week at Westland was Gary Putnam. He earned the place by rolling a 214 triplicate.

BOWLING IN THE Kings and Queens at Garden Lanes took an unusual twist when Dick Santo and his wife, Mickey, shared the honors. Dick paced the men with a 577 and Mickey tied Jan Rudolph for women's high with 519.

THERE ACTION aplenty at Woodland Lanes was topped when Ray Le Chevalier, a 186 average bowler, rolled a 267 in 687. Meanwhile, in the Starlights league, Laurie Sachet showed the way with a 234 game in 602.

W. Bloomfield trips Rochester

Unbeaten West Bloomfield "played a very sound defensive game" in the words of coach Mike Greene and defeated Rochester High, 59-43, last Thursday in a Greater Oakland Athletic League girls' basketball game on Rochester's court.

Any team interested in beating Rochester must find a way to hold down high-scoring Sue McColgan, a 5-foot-8 forward who scored 43 points earlier this season. She collected a game-high 26 points against West Bloomfield, but Greene was disappointed. West Bloomfield's Lynn Gerber, a 5-9 senior forward, led the winners with 16 points on six field goals and four of five free throws. Disilvo chipped in with 14 points, and teammate Carolyn Barczewicz added 10.
