

Farmington tankers take 3rd in RU Relays

Once an athletic team was a championship, it's big goal usually is to retain that title.

Livonia Stevenson, with first-place finishes in four of the 10 events, bested the field last weekend at the sixth annual Redford Union Girls' Swimming Relays.

Stevenson had won the championship in 1974-75, but not since then.

The Spartans tallied 90 points. Eleven schools were represented.

West Bloomfield, the defending champion, finished first in three events and placed second to the Spartans with 73 points. The Lakers were hurt by disqualifications in two races.

Farmington landed third with 57 points, Northville fourth with 52 and Livonia Bentley fifth with 36.

Two of Stevenson's first-place finishes set new meet records.

Jackie Cogo, Jean Shellman, Polly Adzema and Stephanie McAreac clocked 2:16.7 in the 200-yard breaststroke relay. Carol Dotson, Laurie Smith, Cheryl Balawiec and Cogo had an effort of 1:55.9 in the 200-yard butterfly relay.

The Spartans also won the 400-yard medley relay with the quartet of Karen Tatigian, Karen Bierman, Karen Walters and Deb Tracy timed 4:33.0 and the 200-yard backstroke relay when the foursome of Heidi Santo, Lisa Cluett, Sally Rozman and Tatigian put together a time of 2:04.7.

Stevenson placed among the top six finishers in every event but two.

WEST BLOOMFIELD swimmers also established a new meet record with one of the victories.

Donna Land, Dara Stevenson, Kirsten Schipper and Lynda Stevens set a pace of 4:55.6 in the 400-yard medley relay.

That race consisted of successive freestyle legs of 200-150-100-50 yards.

Sue Gierschick and Monique Ozimkowski earned first-place points for the Lakers in diving with a total of 218.35 points.

West Bloomfield also won the 200-yard freestyle relay in 1:51.2 with the combination of Wendy Beckner, Lisa Schmidt, Heidi Perlman and Jeanne Koplin.

FARMINGTON received a record-breaking performance in the 400-yard freestyle relay. Sally Schueler, Amy Edwards, Dawn Stanton and Kim Pogue had a swim of 3:51.2.

Farmington also placed second during the meet in the 400-yard medley relay, 200-yard breaststroke relay and 200-yard butterfly relay.

Northville accounted for the final meet record set during the competition. Tammy Selridge, Allyson Farquhar, Sue Cahill and Kim Storm clocked 1:55.6 in the 200-yard medley relay.

Bentley's best finish in the meet was third in the 400-yard freestyle and 200-yard butterfly relays.

Plymouth Salem, which placed sixth, finished third in the 400-yard medley relay and in the 200-yard backstroke relay.

The best finish for Plymouth Canton, which placed ninth in the team standings, was fourth in the 200-yard medley relay.

Host RU, which tied Kennedy for 10th place, had a fifth-place showing in the 400-yard medley relay.

Outstate squad stops FHS, 20-0

It was a long trip into the thumb area for Farmington's football team last Friday. It was an even longer trip back.

The Falcons went into last Friday's game with Bay City Handy with two straight wins behind them and a string of 11 quarters without having a point scored on them. Neither lasted out the evening, as Handy blanked Farmington, 20-0.

Farmington football coach Hal Beardsley admitted his team played like anything but the team of the four previous games. One of the promising characteristics of the Falcons had been its ability to hang on to the ball.

But that wasn't the squad that took the field against Handy. Farmington turned the ball over five times, three times on pass interceptions. Two of the turnovers set up short scoring drives by Handy, one of 28 yards and another of 27 yards.

It was the third loss of the season for Farmington, all coming in nonleague play. Although the Falcons' record is only 2-3 overall, they are still tied for the Inter Lakes League (ILL) lead with a 2-0 mark.

To stay in the league race, Farmington will have to win this Friday against Waterford, a team which has won four of four contests. Despite the better record, Waterford is a full game behind Farmington in the ILL.

THE REASON? Waterford was soundly defeated by Livonia Stevenson, 38-13, earlier in the season. Since that time, however, the Skippers have routed Walled Lake Central, 54-8, and Milford Lakeland, 35-7. The one-sided contests were especially annoying to Beardsley.

"There's no reason for a team to run up a score like that," he said. "That's just rubbing it in the other team's face, and it's not necessary. But they (Waterford) will try to run up the score."

Beardsley thinks his team is just about ready to jell and put it together. "They're due. They know it's been a comedy of errors. This is the time to do it."
