CC slips by Brother Rice

By DENNIS O'CONNOR

Rick Micunek had his dream come true, but Detroit Catholic Central coach Tom Mach hopes he doesn't experience another nightmare Sunday in Harper Woods.

Micunek dreamt his winning field goal the night before, and his prophecy came true in Sunday's 10-7 overtime Boys' Bowl victory over Birmingham Brother Rice.

But as the overflowing crowd of more than 10,000 fans at Pontiac Wmner Stadium departed, it was a concerned Mach who talked to reporters under the stands about the Notre Dame jinx.

"Notre Dame has been a pain in our sides for three years," the CC coach said about this Sunday's opponent.

"Our kids are looking forward to playing Notre Dame. There's no way we'll look past Notre Dame in my lifetime. We really don't look past anybody."

The Irish have beaten the Shamrocks three straight years now, but CC has even more to lose after edging arch-rival Rice.

The Shamrocks go into the Notre Dame battle with an undefeated record for the first time in Mach's four-year tenure at CC. A lofty state ranking accompanies that 5-0 mark.

It was shades of 1976 — the last time CC defeated Rice, also in overtime — when Micunek's 25-yard field goal from the left hash mark went through the uprights, ending a Shamrock comeback after Rice took a 7-0 halftime lead.

The Warriors, who won the toss and elected to go on offense second, also had a 25-yard field goal attempt from the center of the field, but the usually reliable Jim Ostroski saw his kick sail
