Hawk, North cagers stumble through losses

Every game, it's the same old thing for the Farmington Harrison girls' bas-techtal team— the faces change, but the results are the same. It happened again last Tuesday, as the Hawks came up against a taller team and was unable to effectively penetrate a zone defense for good shots. The result — a 43-24 loss to Waterford Mott.

It has been virtually the same prob-lem for Harrison every week — they come up against a taller team, the taller team goes into a zone defense, and Harrison is unable to either shoot well from the outside or pagetate in well from the outside or penetrate in-side. For the past six games, this com-bination has spelled defeat for the Hawks.

It didn't help matters much that Harrison was without its best player, senior Linda Bache, who injured her knee in a game last week. Another senior Harrison coach Neil Redford has counted as beautil. Beth Nilla Becounter of the property of the pr ed on heavily, Beth Dilley, was also hobbled by a hurt ankle.

It all made it very difficult for Harrison to put together any kind of an at-tack. Mott had a 13-8 lead after one quarter and lengtherned that margin to 25-14 at the half. Any hopes for a comeback ended for Harrison in the third quarter. Mott's zone defense choked off all of Harri-son's offense, as the Hawks were out-scored 10-1 in the period.

RU 69 — NORTH 23

Redford Union jumped out to a 24-3 lead after one quarter and was never threatened after that as it overpowered North Farmington 69-23 in a game Tuesday at North.

The contest was never in doubt as the Panthers handed North its eight straight defeat. The Raiders played Redford Union evenly in the third quarter after being outscored 14-7 in the second. But the Panthers pulled away at the end, outshooting North 20-2 in the final period.

"We didn't play aggressively in the first quarter," North coach Debbie Wochna said afterwards. "And we couldn't seem to get the rebounds.

Falcons boot Huron

Farmington's soccer team rallied from an early deficit to post a 3-1 win over North Suburban Soccer League opponent Ann Arbor Huron last Tuesday. It was the sixth win of the season for the Falcons against one loss and two ties.

Huron scored first after just one Huron scored first after just one minute of play, but Farmington rallied to tie the score with 30 minutes gone from the first half. Forward Tony Said got the goal to knot the score at 1-1 at halftime.

DCDS wins

It's funny what the rain can do to a football team. Detroit Country Day, state-ranked in Class D, wasn't supposed to have any problem with a once-victorious Harper Woods Lutheran East squad. But a constant drizzle at the Yellow Jackets' field Saturday almost cost the local team its un-defeated record.

In fact, it wasn't until Paul Conway's 25-yard scoring run with only 35 seconds left in the game, that the Yellow Jackets secured the victory. But there is no rest for Country Day, as it travels to Detroit Lutheran West tomorrow night for a Metro Conference showndown. Both squads are the only undefeated teams in the league, although West has lost one game — 37-20 to Muskegon North last Friday.

The improving Cranes move to 2-1 in the Metro Conference and 2-3 overall with this 21-point victory over the winless Harper Woods squad.

three quarters, and Al Seafuri kicked all three extra points in the victory.
The Cranes battle a surprising 4-1 Harper Woods squad Saturday at Cranbrook.
"Harper Woods has never been 4-1," said Cranbrook coach John Shooshan. "They (Harper Woods) are a force to be reckoned with. One thing about Harper Woods kids — they come out and hit. And they like to come up and play us here."
Despite the 21-point victory, Shooshan said his squad was still plagued by mistakes.

Shooshan was impressed by his defense, however, which caused eight turnovers – four interceptions and four fumble recoveries — and allowed North only 75 yards total offense — 58 yards rushing and 17 yards passing.

"It was probably one of the best defensive days we've ever had," Shooshan said.
