

Farmington grid teams seek to bounce back

Rich Arnold, and Gary Bierman led the rushing attack with 106 yards on 13 carries.

Farmington's only score against Waterford came on a 65-yard punt return by Dave Flatt. But the Falcons were in the game until Waterford scored twice in the last few minutes of the third quarter.

Still, Farmington had its chances in the final period. But one drive ended with an interception at the six-yard line of Waterford, and another when the Falcons failed to pick up a first down at the Skipper 17.

But none of this will mean a thing against Stevenson. This game is always a slugfest. It's doubtful Farmington will run Farmington off the field. An upset win here would make Farmington season a success.

But that's asking for a lot. Stevenson is very tough, possessing a multitude of ways to score. Stevenson is the reigning ILL champion, and should remain that way. PICK — STEVENSON.

HARRISON-CANTON

It wasn't hard to read the bitter disappointment in Herrington's eyes over his team's loss last Friday, even as late as Monday night.

The Hawks outgained a young Churchill team by a two-to-one margin. But they turned the ball over four times inside the Churchill 20, and that proved to be the difference.

"Our offense was on self-destruct," was Herrington's comment Monday. "In all my years here, we've always been able to come up with the big win — until now."

"This is the toughest loss of my career."

North Farmington must have felt the same way after the Redford Union game last week, and look what happened to the Raiders in their next game.

Fortunately for Herrington, his Hawks won't have the same problem that North's coach Ron Holland had. Canton is winless in six games, and it would surprise few people if the Harrison junior varsity could beat the Chiefs.

Last week, Canton lost to Waterford Mott in a battle of the winless, 15-6. John Tarr scored the lone Canton touchdown on a three-yard run.

Tarr won't face Harrison. He's out with a hurt ankle, joining fellow halfback Bobby Hamblin on the sideline, who's out with a broken collarbone.

Steve Gray is Mr. Everything for Canton. He's played quarterback, halfback, defense, punter and kicked for the Chiefs. If they want to upset Harrison, he may have to do them all at once — and more.

Game time is 2 p.m. at Harrison Saturday. It'll be homecoming for the Hawks, providing them with some incentive. PICK — HARRISON

NORTH-JOHN GLENN

While Farmington might be the best 2-4 team around, North is one of the best 3-3 squads anywhere.

The Raiders have lost three games by a total of eight points. Their three victories have all come by shutouts.

But another of the best 3-3 teams around is John Glenn. The Rockets are always tough on North, and this year should be no different.

Glenn blasted Redford Thurston, 34-7, behind Ken Liede's four touchdowns and 104 yards rushing. Scott Thornton also rushed for 141 yards and scored once.

What has been missing from the North attack is the quarterbacking of Greg Goldstein. Doug Schalle has fill ed in admirably, but not doubt Goldstein, who broke a thumb against Thurston, would have made a difference of at least two points in the last two games.

And that's all North would have needed. Goldstein will not play against the Rockets.

Saturday's game against Glenn will start at 2 p.m. on North's field. Glenn's not as strong as it has been in past years, but neither is North. Home field advantage should decide this one. PICK — NORTH.

Harrison cagers rip Raiders

Farmington Harrison buried North Farmington under an 18-0 third-quarter avalanche enroute to a 53-11 victory over its crosstown rival last Tuesday.

It was the Hawks' third win of the season against seven losses. North suffered its ninth straight setback.

Harrison jumped out to an 8-2 lead after one quarter and held a 21-7 advantage after one period. The Hawks put the contest away with their third-quarter onslaught.

Harrison shot 40 percent from the field, the Hawks best shooting performance of the year. Lori Winkle, with 18 points, was the only player on either team to score in double figures.

North was led by Deanna Foreman's five points.

Harrison hosts Livonia Churchill Thursday at 8 p.m., while North travels to Westland John Glenn for a contest Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

W. BLOOMFIELD 57 LAKELAND 29

West Bloomfield experienced no trouble in cruising to its 10th straight win of the season 57-29 over Milford Lakeland last Tuesday at Lakeland.

The Lakers raced to a 28-0 halftime lead and were never headed. A 20-11 scoring advantage in the third period ensured the victory.

Three Lakers scored in double figures in the contest. Lynn Gerber pumped in 17 points, Stephanie Smith had 11 and Ann Claverilla scored 10. Mary McManus led Lakeland with nine markers.

Sandy DeSilvio had five steals in the game for West Bloomfield, Kelly

O'Mara grabbed 10 rebounds and Sue Vodicka dished out four assists.

Farmington kickers lose

Farmington went up against the top team in the North Suburban Soccer League's (NSSL) West Division last Tuesday at Livonia Stevenson and came out on the short end of a 2-0 score.

Stevenson's Rob Lang booted one past Falcon goalkeeper Jack McInosh with 10 minutes gone in the first half. Stevenson added an insurance marker midway through the second half, as Dave Stangdquist put one in the net.
