

Mason-Whinnery

Arizona State University student Karla Denise Whinnery and Kent Lee Mason exchanged marriage vows in St. Collette Catholic Church of Livonia.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Whinnery of Livonia, formerly of Farmington. Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Mason of Paradise Valley, Ariz., are the bridegroom's parents. The Rev. Joseph Ferens officiated.

The bride's gown featured a five-tier skirt trimmed in lace, basque bodice and chapel train. With it she wore a picture hat with matching lace trim. Her flowers were roses, stephanotis and ivy in a colonial bouquet.

Her attendants wore rainbow pastel eyelet dresses and carried hurricane lamps trimmed with pastel silk flowers.

Deborah Whetter was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Donna Whinnery, Brenda Strickland and Lizette Akins.

Russell Mason was best man and the groomsmen were Michael Mason, Roy Mason, Joseph Miller and Dana Whinnery.

The reception was held in Roma Hall of Livonia and the couple took a two-week honeymoon trip to Acapulco and Southern California. They will make their home at Scottdale, Ariz. The bridegroom is vice president of production for a Phoenix construction firm. He and his wife both earned degrees in marketing from Arizona State.

Cordle-Leach

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Smith of Farmington Hills announce the engagement of their daughter, Cynthia Chantelle Cordle, to Timothy Lynn Leach, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Leach of Cerro Gordo, Ill.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Temple Christian High School and attended Bob Jones University. She is employed with Talnay Agency, Inc.

Her fiancé is a graduate of Cerro Gordo High School and also attended Bob Jones University. He is employed by Smith Well Drilling.

A November wedding is planned.

Sly-Kinne

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Sly of Franklin Village announce the engagement of their daughter, Debra Ann, to Timothy Kinne, son of Rev. and Mrs. Lawrence Kinne of Southgate.

The bride-to-be attended Oakland University and is now a student at Oakland Community College Orchard Ridge Campus, while employed as a chiropractic assistant.

Her fiancé attended Concordia Lutheran Junior College in Ann Arbor and Concordia Teachers College in Seward, Neb. He is employed as a secondary music instructor in Walled Lake. A June, 1980 wedding is planned.

Dutton-Jackson

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Dutton, of Farmington Hills, announce the engagement of their daughter, Janet, to Nathan Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter N. Jackson, of Vermont and Florida, formerly of Birmingham.

The bride-to-be, who attended Farmington High School, is now a nurse specializing in occupational safety. Her fiancé, who attended Seaholm High School, Oberlin College, the University of Michigan and Wayne State Medical School, has just completed a three year residency at Hutzel Hospital in Detroit.

An October wedding is planned in First Presbyterian Church of Farmington.

Legg-Boynton

Marla Jo Boynton and Michael William Legg were married in ceremonies performed by Rev. Charles H. Beynon of Farmington in Bath United Church of Christ, Bath, Ohio.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brooks Boynton of Bath and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Legg of Farmington Hills.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Brian R. Williams of Toledo and Tamara Jo Boynton, who served as flower girl for her aunt.

Michael Legg served as his son's best man. The guests were seated by Gregg Newson, David Olson and Irving Merrihew, all of Michigan, and Brian R. Williams of Toledo.

The bride studied at Birbeck College in London and is a graduate of Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio. She is now enrolled at University of Akron School of Law and will complete work on her law degree at University of Michigan.

The groom is a business administration graduate of Mercy College in Detroit. He studied law at Oxford University and was awarded his JD degree from Detroit College of Law. He is employed by Compuware, Inc.

The couple received guests in Carriage House, and will make their home in Livonia.

'Magic of Herbs' taught in 6-session workshop

Caroline Jamison, who has come to be known as the herb lady, will return to the Farmington Community Center this month with "The Magic of Herbs."

The six-session workshop will cover the history of herbs and their uses in cooking, crafts and medicine.

Sessions will run from 9:30-11:30 a.m. on Tuesdays, beginning Oct. 31.

Mrs. Jamison, who is herb consultant for the Detroit Garden Center, overseer for the herb gardens in Cranbrook and a herb grower for Tweeney's of Birmingham, will talk about garden design and growing methods.

The workshop is part lecture, part demonstration. She uses some slides and mounted specimens.

The class fee is $30 plus materials. Registrations are being taken now by calling the center, at 477-8404, or by stopping in at the center, 24705 Farmington Rd., north of Ten Mile.

Creative crafts next on Y workshop agenda

A one-day workshop called "Creative Crafts" will run from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 31, in Northwest Branch YWCA in the Y building, 25940 Grand River.

Elizabeth Becktold will show participants the tricks of copper enameling and crayola batik.

Copper enameling is the application of powdered glass to copper, in a fusing process to create designs for jewelry or wall pieces. Crayola batik is a spin-off from the ancient batik process of wax resist fabric dying.

Coffee will be available at 9:30 a.m. and a salad bar is available for $2 for those who do not choose to bring their own lunch.

Fee for the workshop is $8 for non-members of the Y, or $6 for members.

When registering, by calling the Y at 537-8500, participants will be told about supplies to bring to the workshop.
