

Dizzy plays

Dizzy Gillespie will be among those jazz greats featured during a jazz film festival scheduled for Nov. 9 and 10. It will be sponsored by Cass City Cinema and station WDET-FM. The program will provide the viewer with a glimpse into the past.

Northland Center holds events

A variety of special events ranging from a display of Corvette cars to jazz and a flute ensemble will take place at Northland Center Friday, Oct. 26, to Sunday, Oct. 28.

The V-8 Estate Corvette Club was founded in the spring of 1971 for the purpose of promoting Corvette competition, ownership and maintenance knowledge.

Current membership is 92 people. Their activities include professional drag racing, auto shows and community projects.

Twenty Corvettes will be on display at Northland throughout the mall, including Al Woodward's 1979 Corvette Coupe with a custom paint job, wire wheels, chrome exhaust and a super charged 454 engine.

The Ursula Walker, Buddy Budson Quartet will appear at 2 and 4 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 27, in the Hudson Alcov Court. Ms. Walker, one of Detroit's first ladies of jazz, is known for her smooth melodic jazz singing. She performs for audiences of all ages.

Appearing at 1 and 3 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 28, in the Hudson Alcov Court will be "The Prevailing Winds," an ensemble of professional free-lance flutists from the metropolitan area. They have recently toured Europe and appeared at concerts in Spain, France and Switzerland where they played in cathedrals and city squares.

Theater comedy opens Friday

Can a love affair last for 25 years? Robert Beaupre and Bethany Morrison Carpenter make it happen in "Same Time Next Year," the long-running Broadway comedy which opens at the Black Sheep Repertory Theater Friday, Oct. 26.

Robert Beaupre is George, a mild-mannered accountant, and Bethany Carpenter is the lady he impulsively picks up in a restaurant in 1951. Doris, the married lady, and George, the married man, embark that night on a week-end affair which becomes a series of 25 affairs — one every year.

During the quarter of a century,

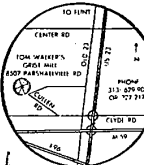

Doris and George both go through several changes in lifestyle. Doris moves from being a housewife to being a successful businesswoman. George becomes very wealthy, making him first appear stuffy, then confused and, eventually, rebellious against his life of riches. Conflicts result from the sharing of triumphs and tribulations in George's and Doris' separate worlds, creating laughter and tears throughout "Same Time Next Year."

"Same Time Next Year," by Bernard Slade, directed by Joseph Zubrick, runs Oct. 28 through Nov. 11, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.

ENJOY A DAY IN THE COUNTRY... COME ON OUT TO PARSHALLVILLE'S HISTORIC TOM WALKER'S GRIST MILL

Tom Walker's Grist Mill is one of the few remaining water powered Mills in Michigan. The 100-year mill is over 100 years old. We hope you will come to the Mill and enjoy the activities the Mill has to offer.
