

Police To Auction Seized Items

The 14th annual Michigan State Police auction of confiscated and unclaimed merchandise will begin at 9 a.m. Friday, August 23, at department headquarters, 714 South Harrison road, East Lansing.

More than 2,000 items grouped in about 500 lots will be offered. The sale will continue until all merchandise has been sold.

Among the articles will be 57 boys and girls bicycles, television sets, a lawn mower, boats, motors and trailers.

Usual offerings will include cameras, watches, radios, rings, clothing, hunting, fishing and other sporting equipment, hand and power tools, car accessories and parts, purses and wallets.

The auctioneer will be Glenn Casey, of Marion and formerly of Williamston.

Last year's auction netted the state treasure $2,082.21.
