

Farmington whips WLC; Harrison cagers nipped

Chris Looser, a 5-foot-9 sophomore forward, scored 12 points to lead Farmington High past Walled Lake Central, 55-34, last Thursday in an Inter Lakes League girls' basketball game. The victory boosted Farmington to 7-5 overall and 2-3 in the ILL.

Looser made five field goals and two of two free throws to lead the Falcons. Julie Tadrzynski had 11 points and Kelly Wallace scored 10 for Farmington, which posted a 21-18 halftime lead. Wendy Keely scored 12 points for Central.

"This was far and away our best game of the season," said Farmington coach Diane Schwartz. "Central is tough with only one loss in the league before this. But we moved the ball real well and we managed to break their press. That was the key."

Farmington plays next on Tuesday (Oct. 30) at North Farmington. Game time is 7 p.m.

In other girls' basketball last Thursday, Northville nipped Farmington Harrison, 34-33, in the Western Six League. The loss dropped Harrison to 3-9 overall and 1-5 in the league.

Harrison's Linda Bache, who led the losers with 15 points, made two free throws with 51 seconds left to play to make it 34-33. Harrison got the ball twice on turnovers before the game ended, but the Hawks couldn't score.

Julie Nixon and Kim Maguire led Northville with nine and seven points, respectively. Beth Dilley and Gina Kikka each had six points for Harrison, which managed a 14-11 halftime lead.

Harrison entertains Plymouth Canton on Thursday at 7 p.m. p.m.

North Farmington's girls' basketball team dropped its 13th in a row last Thursday with a 59-28 drubbing by Garden City East in the Northwest Suburban League.

Sherry Kiselica led East with 16 points. Diane Konicik had eight points for North Farmington and Meg Henrich added six.

9th straight

WB runs to title

West Bloomfield captured the top three places and had little trouble in claiming its ninth straight Greater Oakland Athletic League boys' cross country championship Saturday at Marshbank Park in West Bloomfield.

Gymnasts win

The Farmington YMCA Gym J's started their gymnastic season on a winning note by capturing 19 out of a possible 20 first places in beating Downriver YMCA last Sunday.

Farmington's Kristen Tomle dominated the 10-year-old and under division, winning the floor exercise, balance beam, uneven parallel bars and the all-around. The 10 and under vault was the only event Farmington failed to win.

Holly Thurston and Kelly O'Rourke led Farmington in the 10-12 age group, with Thurston placing first in the floor exercise and balance beam. O'Rourke took the uneven parallel bars and vault. Thurston won the all-around competition, with O'Rourke second.

The league title is based half on dual meet results and half on the league championship meet. The Lakers finished 5-0 in the dual meet season, combined with their first place in the league meet, won the title outright.

West Bloomfield had 22 team points while second place Milford finished with 25. Rochester was next with 36. Waterford Kettering had 116, Bloomfield Hills Andover had 129 and Clarkston was last but did not finish enough runners to score.

The Lakers' Manny Casenas won the individual title with a time of 16:02.8. Mark Shaw was second (16:12.2) and Pete Rosser was third (16:13.3) for West Bloomfield.

John North finished seventh for the Lakers (16:26), with Karl Ederle coming in ninth (16:36.1).

The West Bloomfield girls finished in an overall tie for second in the conference, taking third in the league meet behind Milford and repeat champion Rochester.

year. And we got 12 cheerleaders on our team. Central only has eight."

"But why do you have to know now? I still got another year in junior high. And I thought I had to go to Central — how come now I've got a choice?" Johnny rushed this all out at once, while the husky coach looked for air between sentences.

"We got to know soon so that we can get all the wheels turnin' — you know, records and addresses changed, things like that," the coach replied. "And don't you worry none about how we'll get you to East — if you want to come, we'll figure a way."

Johnny looked bewilderedly at his father. "I-I, dunno," he stammered.

"Take your time, boy, take your time," the coach said with a wide sweep of his hands. "You've got three weeks." The coach headed for the door, then turned.

"By the way, don't mention my visit to anyone, will you?" he said to Johnny with a smile. Then he touched John Sr. on the arm. "Can I talk to you for a minute?"

Both men left the room, but Johnny could still hear them whispering something about cancellation of property taxes and the possibility of a large payment towards the mortgage.
