Hawks nipped, 13-12

By BRAD EMONS

After each game Plymouth Salem football coach Tom Moshimer and his team huddle near the bench and say a prayer of thanks.

After his team squeaked by Farmington Harrison, 13-12. Friday night, Moshimer sang praises about his defense.

It was the defense which raised Salem's overall mark to 7-2. The Rock defenders nearly shut down a potent Harrison ground game. The Hawks were limited to just 41 yards rushing.

"Our defense is a great defense," said Moshimer. "This defense is the best I've ever had. They've kept us in more ball games this year."

A letdown by the defense in the first half got Harrison into a deep hole as the Rocks led 13-0 at intermission.

"We didn't stop the run in the first half," said Harrison coach John Herrington, whose team finished the year with a 7-2 mark. "It was just a matter of tackling."

Salem marched 75 yards in plays to get on the board first. The Rocks selected all running plays to score.

With 2:34 left in the first quarter, quarterback Jim Anderson raced 15 yards on a keeper and Brian Lewandowski's successful extra point made it 7-0.

Salem tallied its second TD midway through the second quarter. The drive started on the Rocks' 47.

play to keep the drive going.

With 5:18 to go, Anderson hooked up with Schultz again on a seven-yard "look in" pass, giving the Rocks a 13-0 lead. Harrison blocked the extra point attempt.

Harrison then took the ball and marched 66 yards down to the Salem four. On fourth down, quarterback Bruce Morrison kept the drive going when spotted receiver Dave Prestel for a 25-yard gain down to the Salem four. On the next play, Morrison hit Prestel again in the end zone but officials ruled he was out-of-bounds.

On second down, Salem nose guard Ken Caspla knifed in and caused Morrison to fumble. Tommie Scott Piper picked it up to stop the Harrison bid with under a minute to play.

Momentum quickly changed in the second half as Harrison went more frequently to the air.

A fumbled Salem snap led to the Hawks' first score.

And Morrison wasted little time as he hit Hal Pittaway with a 15-yard scoring toss with 6:25 to go in the third quarter. But Harrison gained little ground as Jim Anderson blocked the extra point attempt by Greg Mehall.

Harrison started a final drive with 7:33 to go in the game on its own 34. A flea-flicker play with Morrison going to Ken Kopko, who threw Prestel for 35 yards.

THAT PLAY, coupled with four straight running attempts, moved Harrison down to the Salem 17. Morrison then hit Mark Alcantara on a scramble pass in the end zone, cutting the lead to 13-12 with 3:22 to go.

Harrison then called time out and Herrington decided to try for the victory, going for the two-point conversion.

On a roll out, Morrison threw an incomplete pass, saving the Rocks.

Harrison got the ball back in the last minute, but having used all its allotted time outs, simply ran out of time on its own 45.

Salem outgained Harrison in total yardage, 217-168. Prestel made five catches for 84 yards.

Craig Stack led Salem in rushing with 81 yards in 14 carries.

Farmington cagers bounce Lakeland, 60-50

Sue Carruthers and Chris Looser combined for 29 points last Thursday as Farmington High defeated Lakeland, 60-50, in an Inter Lakes League girls' basketball game at Lakeland.

Carruthers led all scorers with 17 points on five field goals and seven of eight free throws, and Looser added 12 points on six field goals. Farmington led by three points (29-25) at halftime.

"We didn't play all that well, but we shot fairly well and we managed to break their press," said Farmington assistant coach Diane Schwartz.

Farmington, now 9-5 overall and 3-3 in the ILL, plays next on Tuesday (Nov. 6) at home against Farmington Harrison. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

In another girls' basketball game last Thursday, Plymouth Canton upended Farmington Harrison, 14-10, in the Western Six League. Harrison is 3-10 overall and 1-6 in the conference.

Cindy Ruggerio and Sue Savine each scored 10 points for Canton, which led by five points (20-15) at halftime.

Harrison's Linda Bache had an outstanding game, scoring 13 points, grabbing 19 rebounds and making seven steals.

Lori Winkle added eight points for the losers.

Winless North Farmington made it 15 straight girls' basketball losses last Thursday night with a 91-32 showing against Redford Thurston in the Northwest Suburban League.

Those 32 points represent North's most productive game of the season, according to first-year coach Debbie Wochna. Sue Bernas, Carol Varjabedian and Barrie alley each posted eight points for North Farmington.

North travels to Birmingham Seaholm for a 7:30 p.m. game on Tuesday.
