

Dance studio's disco contest offers cash prizes

Oakland County residents will have an opportunity to compete in a disco dance contest and win $100 first prize, $50 second prize or $25 third prize.

The contest will be held from 9 p.m. to 2 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 24, at the Somerset Inn, 2601 W. Big Beaver, Troy.

According to sponsor Angela Riley, of Riley's Dance Studio in Pontiac, criteria for contestants includes rhythm, style, timing, plus technique.

Ms. Riley, a member of the North Oakland Chamber of Commerce, attended Detroit Ballet Society and Margygrove College. She has taken lessons from instructor Nat Horne of Alvin Ailey American Dance Center in New York.

A recent Broadway performer, Horne awarded the choreographer with a full scholarship to attend the Music Theatre in New York.

Riley's Dance Studio offers classes in ballet, jazz, tap, plus disco for all ages, from instructors Juanita and Terry Dye of Walled Lake, winners of several dance contests.

For ticket information call Riley's Dance Studio at 334-1212; Change of Pace Clothiers at 642-2636, or Detroit Audio Systems at 963-0800.

Rodgers and Hart evening accenting cafe society

Recreating the cafe society atmosphere of the '30s and '40s, "An Evening with Rodgers and Hart" will be presented in Kresge Court of the Detroit Institute of Arts on Sunday, Nov. 18, with two seatings, at 7:30 p.m. and 9:30 p.m.

Tickets priced per person or for a table for six, may be obtained through the Art Institute ticket office. Reservations are required. For complete information, call 832-2730.

Music written by Richard Rodgers and the lyrics of Lorenz Hart will be performed by The Voices, Bev Sharette, Roland Sharette, Ed Wolff and Bill Gard, professional singers from the Detroit area.

Instrumental accompaniment will be provided by Detroit jazz artists Bess Bonnier, piano; Will Austin, bass; Tom Brown, drums; and Larry Nozaro, saxophone.

CHAMPAGNE, hors d'oeuvres, desserts and coffee will be served at no additional charge.

Musical numbers will include such favorites as "My Funny Valentine," "Little Girl Blue," "I Wish I Were in Love Again," "This Can't Be Love" and lesser known "Wait 'Til You See Her" and "It Never Entered My Mind." Between numbers informal conversation will be encouraged with the audience guests and the artists.

"An Evening with Rodgers and Hart" is presented by the Performing Arts Department of The Detroit Institute of Arts in conjunction with the Michigan Vocal Jazz Society.

For reservations and additional information, call the Art Institute ticket office at 832-2730.

Area woman performs in melodrama

Ruth Kingsbury of Birmingham is appearing in the Warren Theater Guild production of the temperance melodrama "Ten Nights in a Barroom."

The show will run Friday and Saturday, Nov. 16-17 and 23-24, at the Inn of Warren (the Roundhouse), 29800 Van Dyke, between 12 and 13 Mile Roads. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

Tickets include all the beer and pop you can drink and all the pretzels you can eat. The play is an old-fashioned musical melodrama which speaks out against the evil of drink.

Tickets can be reserved by calling Susan at 254-2169; a limited number of tickets will be available at the door.

Is there anything more important than your child's future?

You want to help your children be all they want to be—all they can be.

But sometimes, there could be problems in school. Your child may have trouble keeping up, or he or she may feel they are being held back and could go faster than the class.

Now there is a way to help your child where he or she needs help. A way that could lead to improvement in your child's Reading, English or Math ability.

The Control Data Learning Center is offering special training for children who are having trouble with 4th to 8th grade work. And improvement is guaranteed under a no-risk enrollment agreement.
