

OLSM college wins cage opener

All five starters scored in double figures to boost Orchard Lake St. Mary College to a 92-85 win in its season opener against Jordan College in Grand Rapids last Saturday. Two players Eagle coach Tim Domke had figured on to start — 6-foot-8 senior center Mike Baker and 6-5 sophomore forward Aaron Hardaway — missed the contest because of injuries.

But neither were missed in the victory. Ed Barrett, a 6-5 freshman power forward, replaced Hardaway and led the team with 20 points. A graduate from Allen Park St. Francis Cabrini high school, Barrett hit on seven of nine floor shots and six straight from the free throw line.

Martin Eddy, a 6-8 junior, filled in for Baker at center. Eddy pumped in 14 points and hauled down 12 rebounds. Craig Blackwell, a 6-5 guard, netted 18 points, guard Scott Glidden had 13 points and 10 assists and forward Mike Knight had 11 points and 11 rebounds. All three are sophomores.

"We got some balanced scoring from our starters," Domke said after the season-opening win. "We did a pretty good job (offensively)."

The Eagles had an outstanding shooting night, connecting on 71 percent of their floor chances. They also outrebounded Jordan, 43-29. But OLSM was guilty of 33 turnovers in the contest.

JORDAN WAS led by Shane Wheeler with 23 points and Gary Johnson with 15.

The victory was an important one for the young Eagle squad, which finished 20-18 last year. Five freshmen, five sophomores, a junior and a senior compose this season's team.

Blavell, Glidden, Knight, Baker and Hardaway are returning starters from last year's team. However, freshman Barrett has made such an impression on Domke that he may crack that starting lineup.

OLSM opens its home season Saturday, Nov. 17, against Alliance College from Cambridge Springs, Pa. The contest is billed as the unofficial national Polish-American collegiate basketball championship.

The winner of the game will receive the Polski-Orzel, a stainless-steel traveling trophy. St. Mary's is the current holder on the basis of its last-second, 68-67 win last year at Alliance.

Game time is 7:30 p.m. at Domkowski Fieldhouse on Orchard Lake's campus, Orchard Lake and Commerce roads.

Mercy cagers 2nd

The West Bloomfield girls' basketball team stayed on top of the Observer and Eccentric cage poll by winning both of its game last week. Farmington Our Lady of Mercy kept pace with the Lakers also winning both of its games.

West Bloomfield was 15-1 as of Monday. Mercy was 15-2 and preparing for the Catholic League playoffs.

Bloomfield Hills Lahser claimed the No. 3 spot for itself by defeating Rochester Adams in a Metro Suburban Association (MSA) game.

Lahser has been led this year by a core of four starters. Eileen Steward, Sarah Albert, Jackie Munson and Fran Kientle all have averaged around 12 points a game, according to Lahser coach John Hansen.

Thursday's 33-25 win over Adams gave the Knights a 9-0 league record and the MSA title. Adams dropped to 7-2 in the MSA, both losses coming at the hands of the Knights.

Adams remains in fourth place in the O&E rankings. The Highlanders get one more shot at Lahser. The two schools will meet in the same Rochester High district in the state basketball playoffs.

Troy High, winner of five straight games going into this week's Oakland A League playoffs, is the newcomer to this week's ratings. Troy sports a 12-4 record and nailed down fifth place with nine points. Class B Troy will be one of the favorites along with Birmingham Marian at the Marian district in two weeks.

Rochester High dropped into a tie for sixth place with Southfield Christian. Both squads received three points. Farmington High, which was in the ratings last week, lost its only game of last week to non-league foe Dearborn. The Falcons received one point, not enough to make the top seven.

Despite its narrow 48-47 setback to Class B Lutheran East Saturday, Southfield Christian, 13-3, remains in a tie for sixth place. The Class D school won one game and lost one game last week. The Eagles has been paced this year by forward Connie Jokisch and guard Cathie Holiday.

Rochester, 11-6, is in second place in the Greater Oakland Athletic League (GOAL) behind West Bloomfield.
