Mercy claims 15th-straight league title

Mercy coach Deloris Yager, whose 1979 team demonstrated its strength by winning the Catholic League championship last Saturday, said she believes her team has a chance to win the state title.

"I know we're going to give it a shot," said Yager, who coached the Marlins to a 12-0 dual meet record this fall. "We have some excellent swimmers and I know we'll do well in the state meet. But I don't know if we'll have enough depth. And there are several very good teams which could win."

In the Catholic League meet, held at Oakland University, Mercy scored 46 points. Birmingham Marian was a distant second with 108, and Harper Woods Regina had 192.

In winning, Mercy earned its 15th-straight Catholic League swimming championship.

FRESHMAN KARA McGrath was an individual standout for Mercy. She established league records in the 100-yard butterfly (1:00.6) and the 500-yard freestyle (5:08.6).

She also swam a leg on Mercy's 200-yard medley relay (with Sue Miller, Sue MacMillan and Betsy Leahy), which set a league record with a time of 1:55.5.

MacMillan, a senior, won two individual events, taking the 200 individual medley in 2:19.0 and the 100 breaststroke in 1:11.2. Leahy, another senior, won the 100 free (55.4) and the 50 free (25.3).

Miller set another league record by logging a 1:44.0 in the 100 backstroke.

Mercy's 400 freestyle relay (Pam Saunders, Adrienne Hampe, Miller and Cathy Cashman) won with a time of 3:53.8. Mercy went one-two in the diving event: Senior Ginger Smith won with 283.0 points and Katie Gibbs followed with 285.50.

The only non-mercy winner was Regina's Jennifer Gentile, who topped the 200 freestyle with a 2:06.0 clocking.

WESTERN SIX LEAGUE MEET
Sue Humphries established a Western Six League record in diving with 429.10 points to help Farmington Harrison finish second in the conference meet last Friday with 257 points.

Northville High won the title with 370 points in the League meet and Plymouth Canton finished third with 251. Host Livonia Churchill was fourth with 92.

Harrison's Sharon Goodman finished second in the 500 freestyle with a time of 6:06.7, and teammate Julie Weiss was runner up in the 100 breaststroke in 1:15.5.

Nancy Whittemore of Harrison finished third in a pair of events, the 100 butterfly (1:07.9) and the 50 freestyle (27.3). Teammate Sandy Sinclair was third in the 100 breast at 1:20.4.
