Hill and Dale Garden Club walks for holiday spirit

The Hill and Dale Garden Club of Farmington is preparing for its annual Christmas Walk.

The walk, which helps put the club in the proper mood for the holiday season, features displays by seven members in their homes. Each of the members opens her home to the public for the walk between 1-6 p.m. Dec. 9.

Each takes on a different theme of the holiday season, which enables them to bring a bit of the outdoors inside as well as start off the season with the right amount of cozy cheerfulness with their neighbors.

This season, the following members have donated their time to the event: Mrs. Richard Angelo, Mrs. Alan Boring, Mrs. Albert Darian, Mrs. Robert Heien, Mrs. Joseph Langdon, Mrs. Leslie Pheil and Mrs. Ronald Senkowski.

Each woman brings her own interests into the display. Mrs. Langdon fashions her vision of the holidays with treasures she has collected while traveling. Each item brings a bit of foreign places to her own hearth.

FROM TRAVELING around the world, the club turns its attention toward a walk in the woods with Mrs. Boring's home display. Using greenery and plants found in a winter's woods, she brings their crisp freshness to the indoors.

Others, like Linda Heier, concentrate on a child's vision of the season, with dolls and lollipops in abundance.

Included in the tour will be a boutique and tea in the Farmington Community Center on Farmington Road north of 10 Mile. The boutique will feature hand-made items suitable for gift giving.

The proceeds from the walk will support the club's garden therapy program in the Farmington Public Schools. The club has been visiting classrooms since 1961 armed with projects for handicapped students. Tickets for the walk are available on the day of the walk at the community center for $6.

Bringing the outdoors inside is the aim of Barbara Boring's Christmas Walk efforts.
