

Gasche— Katterman

Sharon Ann Katterman of Farmington Hills and Mark K. Gasche of Vincennes, Ind., were married Oct. 13 in Shepherd King Lutheran Church, West Bloomfield.

Parents of the newlyweds are Derald and Barbara Katterman of Farmington Hills and Barbara Gasche of Clio, and Kermit Gasche of Indianapolis, Ind.

The bride wore a white silk organza dress with a sweetheart neckline and full sleeves. The bodice and additional accents were done in silk venise lace. The bouquet consisted of white carnations and roses in a colonial shape with ivy cascades.

The brides attendants were Lisa Adams of Liscomb, Iowa, maid of honor; Janet Turny, Marsha Gilbert, Rhonda Pink and Laurie Woffrom.

They wore full length gowns in deep royal blue crepe satin. The A-line gowns were covered by capes in floral blues, pinks and lavender.

The bridegroom's attendants were Glenn Woodward of Midland, best man; Perry Pastula, Kurt Ludlow, Rick Katterman and Mitch Gasche.

The reception was in the Forest Lake Country Club.

The bride is a graduate of Harrison High School in Farmington Hills and of Central Michigan University.

The groom is a graduate of Clio High School and Central Michigan University. He is employed by Vincennes University as a hall director.

After a honeymoon in French Lick, Ind., the couple plan to live in Vincennes, Ind.

Y's holiday term begins

Registration is open now at Northwest Branch YWCA, 25940 Grand River, for the holiday term which begins the week of Dec. 3.

Daytime classes for adults include physical fitness, back exercises, tennis, macrame, crochet, ceramics, quilting, volleyball, drawing, holiday cooking and old-time Christmas crafts.

Adult evening classes include tennis, horseback riding, yoga, physical fitness, diet, volleyball, disco, creative dance exercise, ballet and tennis.

The pool is open for recreational swim daily Monday through Saturday.

The holiday term runs for six weeks with a two-week recess during the holidays.

Short-term workshops offered are gingerbread house, on Dec. 5, a one-session class; holiday macrame, a three-session class beginning Dec. 3; and biscuit wreaths, two sessions, beginning Dec. 4.

Other things to make are patchwork Christmas trees, wall hangings, or hexagon Christmas trees.

Information on all programs is available by calling the Y at 537-8500.

The YWCA is a Torch Drive Agency.

Y's Christmas party designed for all ages

The annual YWCA Community Christmas Party will begin at 2 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 2, in Northwest Branch Y, 25940 Grand River.

The program will include bell ringers, choral groups, photography exhibits, a ballet show and refreshments.

Designed for both children and adults, there will be a special tot room where pre-schoolers can make decorations for the Y's "Tot Tree," and Santa Claus will make an appearance during the afternoon festivities.

The public is invited to the party as guests of the Y. There is no admission charge.

Double winner

"Smith's Creek Depot" was a third-place award for Wally Mordarski and a fourth-place spot in the popular voting from art show-goers when Farmington Artists Club gave their fall art show and exhibit this month. Mordarski had three of his entries selected for the juried exhibit, and none were for sale. (Staff photo by Randy Borst)

Methodists ask guests to join Christmas walk

A Christmas Walk will run continuously from 2-5 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 15, in First United Methodist Church of Farmington, on Grand River and Warner.

The walk is a symbolic "Journey to Bethlehem" with a number of stops, or stations, along the road taken by Mary and Joseph from Nazareth to Bethlehem, from Annunciation to Nativity.

Harriet Peramble, speaking for the congregation, said, "All who might welcome a break from shopping or work, are invited to drop by and join this activity."

Lucia for '79

Susan Sparks, the Swedish Club's Lucia for 1979, will head up the Lucia procession during International Institute's "Noel Night" beginning at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 12. The time-honored Swedish Christmas tradition is but one of many traditions which will be re-enacted by a host of ethnic groups during the institute's pre-Christmas festivities.
