

Fruit sale continues

range from $6 to $10 for quantities of 18 to 48. Deadline for orders is Friday, Nov. 30 with the fruit to be delivered Dec. 10. Telephone orders may be placed by calling 538-5039 or 474-5585. (Staff photo by Bill Bresler)

Harold Bogart of Farmington Hills was recently elected president of the Central Solar Energy Research Corp. His term begins Jan. 1, 1980. He will be responsible for directing the corporation's effort to bring mass production know-how and design to bear on solar energy conversion systems. Bogart, recently retired from the Ford Motor Co., was a manufacturing staff executive responsible for the development and introduction of a wide variety of industry leading manufacturing processes. He is past national president of the American Society for Testing Materials and has received the Award of Merit for the American Foundryman's Society. He received the William Hunt Eiseeman Award of the American Society for Metals.
