Give blood for holidays

The American Red Cross will station two bloodmobiles in and around Farmington during the month of December.

From 10 a.m. - 4 p.m., Dec. 8 a bloodmobile will be stationed in front of the 47th District Courthouse, 32795 West Ten Mile, Farmington.

From 9 a.m. - 3 p.m., Dec. 12, a bloodmobile will stand in front of St. George Romanian Orthodox Church, 18405 West Nine Mile, Southfield. For an appointment call 569-4833 during blood drive hours.

Donations are accepted at the Oak Park Donor Center, 25900 Greenfield, from 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. Mondays and Fridays; from 2 - 8 p.m., Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays; from 9 a.m. - 2 p.m. Saturday and from 9 a.m. - 3 p.m. on Dec. 24. For an appointment call 968-2295.

"We especially need blood donations during holiday periods," said A. William Shafer, M.D., director of the Southeastern Michigan Regional Red Cross Blood Services.

"Group donations are usually down due to industrial shutdowns; there are fewer collection days and fewer donors who take the time to donate. But we still have hospital patients who need blood."

Persons between the ages of 18-66 and in general good health are eligible to donate blood. Persons 17 years old should have parental permission.
