

What is her inheritance?

Dear Mrs. Green,

I follow your column faithfully and try to figure out my personality traits through your examples, but to no avail! As a baby, I was found on a lawn 58 years ago with no identification. So I know absolutely nothing about my background or inherited traits and characteristics.

I would very much appreciate your insight on my personality traits. Perhaps then I can have some idea of what my inheritance was.

Thank you for your consideration!
S.L. Bloomfield Hills

Dear S.L.

Thank you for your letter. Hope this analysis will give you some insight into your personality.

Outwardly you are very poised and keep your emotions under control. Always you seek to get the facts and consider the consequences of your actions before committing yourself. You refrain from impulsive actions and tend to be somewhat cautious in interpersonal relationships (near vertical slant and shape of your personal pronoun I).

Your handwriting is replete with positive traits. Whatever you do must be done in a precise, careful manner. You are orderly and well organized. A keen awareness of details has you handling them carefully (careful t crossing, i dots, and line spacing). Your determination is strong and revealed in your straight lower loops.

You are probably more quiet than talkative, but have a tactful way of communicating with others and you do enjoy a good discussion in areas of interest to you.

You have a logical mind and do not depend on your intuition for the answers.

You are highly self-disciplined and enjoy a structured life. You are extremely dependable and your friends know they can count on you.

Within you there is a willingness to assume responsibility. And the next statement is going to sound like a paradox, but the shape of many lead-in strokes suggests your depending on someone else at times.

A sensuous nature affords you pleasure through your senses. You are probably enjoying the beautiful fall colors.

At the time you wrote you were feeling rather tired or down, perhaps a little unappreciated also (downward sloping lines and your personal pronoun I).

If you have a question regarding your personality, write to Mrs. Lorene C. Green, a certified graphologist, care of this newspaper. Please use a full sheet of unlined, white paper and write in the first person singular. Time only allows Mrs. Green to answer your letters through the column.
