

Life-size decorations fill the Detroit Plaza Hotel to express Christmas celebrations in other countries.

Community House trip explores Ren Cen

The Community House in Birmingham has planned a holiday event taking interested persons to festively decorated Renaissance Center in Detroit.

On two separate dates, Tuesday, Dec. 4, and Tuesday, Dec. 11, chartered buses will take the group downtown to see elaborate decorations and also to have a specially planned luncheon at the Detroit Plaza Hotel. Time will be provided for holiday shopping at the 70-plus shops in the complex.

Fashion models will informally show fashions of the season during the luncheon. Guests will hear a variety of musical groups filling the air with Christmas songs.

The entertainment package includes transportation, luncheon, and fashion show. Reservations are being accepted at The Community House, Bates and Townsend, Birmingham. For further information, call The Community House at 644-8832.
