

Armed robber hits Little Caesars

An armed man escaped from the Little Caesars pizzeria in downtown Farmington Thursday night with $207. The robbery occurred at 8:45 p.m. It was the second armed robbery reported in Farmington this year.

Michael Collett, 17, an employee, told police he left the store briefly to go to neighboring Baskin-Robbins. He left a friend, Eileen Whittemore, alone in the pizzeria.

A man lingering in the hallway forced Miss Whittemore to the cash register, pulled a blue steel automatic revolver, and demanded all the cash. Miss Whittemore was unable to open the register. Collett returned, and the suspect ordered him to give him the money from the register.

The man fled with the cash through a rear door.

The suspect is described as a white male, between 20 and 30 years old, six feet tall, and 160 pounds.

He wore a brown leather coat, brown ski mask and gloves.

Similar cases have been reported in Livonia and Ferndale.

Basketball league is being organized

A 6-foot and under men's basketball league is being organized by the Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation league.

Those interested should register on Jan. 9 at the Shiawassee Recreation Center, 30415 Shiawassee, Farmington Hills.

Cost is $5. Those eligible must be at least 18-years-old and, of course, no more than 6 feet tall.

The league will consist of six, eight-man teams that will play a six game schedule.

Players will be assigned to teams by a blind draw prior to the start of the league. A meeting will be held prior to the start of the program for all individuals.

Games will consist of six, six minute running periods with every player playing half of the game.

A scorekeeper and timekeeper will be provided. Registration is due by 4:30 p.m. December 28 at the Farmington Hills Parks And Recreation office, 31555 11 Mile, Farmington Hills.
