

Chuck Muer's new Diggers restaurant, a revamped Clamdiggers in Farmington Hills, will have an expanded menu with emphasis on a broader range of foods.

Muer digs in with another approach

Restaurateur Chuck Muer has announced that he will close his Clamdiggers restaurant in Farmington Hills for remodeling on Jan. 1 and reopen Jan. 10 at Diggers, a broader restaurant concept.

"We've been quite successful with fine seafood dining at Clamdiggers, but there is a growing market need out there for more casual and impromptu dining, too," said Muer.

"We're combining the two in the new Diggers by bringing in some exciting new meat and pasta items, and by brightening the decor and making it somewhat more casual."

New items on the broader lunch and dinner menus will include Aspen barbecue ribs from Muer's Shaft restaurant in Aspen, prime rib, and a linguini with red clam sauce created by Executive Chef Larry Pagliara.

MUER EMPHASIZED that old favorite Clamdigger entrees like Maine lobster, Alaskan King crab legs, stuffed lobster and fresh fish from Boston, Great Lakes and Canada will still occupy an honored place on the menu.

The raw seafood bar will remain a center attraction, with its heaps of fresh oysters, scallops and shrimp, reposing on a bed of crushed ice.

Muer said the new menu and character of the restaurant will appeal to a broader range of diners, particularly for lunch and after-work and late evening snacks.

"Clamdiggers has always been a popular dining place with a loyal following. Now it will also be the kind of place you'll stop by with the gang after a ball game or club meeting, or for a snack after the show or shopping."

Muer said.

Sandwiches, including a half-pound burger and a steak sandwich on homemade bread, will help serve this market, he said.

PRICES WILL RUN about $2 lower on most dinners by including the basic entree, vegetable and hot homemade bread, and leaving soups and salads optional, ala carte.

Waiting time should no longer be a problem, Muer said.

Seating capacity will be expanded from 185 to 225, by removing the salad bar and piano bar.

Seating will be on a first-come basis, with no reservations taken.

Hours for the new Diggers will be approximately the same. Monday-

Thursday from 11:30 a.m. to 11 p.m.; Friday from 11:30 a.m. to midnight; Saturday from 5 p.m. to midnight; Sunday from 3 to 10 p.m.

Muer opened Clamdiggers, at 30555 Grand River, Farmington Hills, in November.

The new concept at Diggers will be very close to the kind of restaurant Chuck Muer will open in Toledo, Ohio, in January. The first to be named Chuck Muer's, it will be located on Baroni Court off Airport Highway just east of I-475.

The performance is a benefit for the World Medical Relief Fund. Dave Lockhart of WXYZ Talk Radio will be the host. The Punch and Judy Theatre is located at 21 Kercheval.

'Here's Love' benefit due

"Here's Love," the musical version of "The Miracle on 34th Street," will be performed at 8 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 15, at the Punch and Judy Theatre in Grosse Pointe Farms.

Northfield Hilton plans gala evening

Three gala New Years packages are offered by Troy's Northfield Hilton to usher in 1980 in festive style, according to general manager Artie Gilman.

The first package, "gala stay" with an open bar and hors d'oeuvres at 8:30 p.m. New Year's Eve.

The hour-long cocktail party is followed by a four-course prime rib dinner, including a bottle of champagne and a favorite after-dinner cordial.

Jerry Ross' Orchestra will play after-dinner dancing music until 1:30 a.m. Hats, favors and dinner show with Wayne Roland is included in the package.

Celebrants stay in rooms with two double beds or one king-sized bed with a thoughtful "do-not-disturb" sign for the door.

On Tuesday for the sports fans — a 50-yard-line view of New Year's Day football game on color TV at poolside, in Hotel's or in guest room is offered. For the more formal, a demonstration of the Hilton folder with presentations by the Hilton staff will be available. For everyone: An all-season heated indoor swimming pool, men's and women's saunas, and parking also are included.

CELEBRATE I, featuring the gala New Year's Eve party, overnight accommodations and brunch is $165 for two, with tips and taxes included.

CELEBRATE II consists of the same New Year's Eve gala, less accommodations and brunch and is $115 per couple.

Northfield Hilton is located at Crock's Road exit on I-75.
