Hills Andover's basketball fortunes thus far this season. Because without their meter, the Barons wouldn't measure up to their 5-2 record.
Andover's Tim Meyer accounted for nearly half of his team's point total as the Barons fought off a North Farmington fourth-quarter rally to win, 58-52.
Meyer, a 6-foot-2½ swingman, poured in 27 points to lead Andover. The senior has been the team's top scorer in every game this season.
The Barons built up a six-point lead (44-38) after three quarters, but North closed that margin with an 18-14 scoring advantage in the fourth period.
"The best way to describe it was that it was a nonleague game," Andover coach John Maloney said. "We didn't play with much emotion, but we had enough poise to hang on and win."
"Offensively, we got good shots and good offensive movement in the first three quarters. Late in the game our defense let us down. We didn't block out."
Maloney was impressed with North's Brian Bowditch, who pumped in 17 points to lead the Raiders. Rex Baker chipped in with 15.

Joining Meyer in double figures for the Barons was Mike Donaldson with 12 points.
North, now 1-4 for the season, hosts Redford Thurston at 8 p.m. Friday. Andover travels to Rochester for an 8 p.m. contest Friday.

FARMINGTON 65
PLYMOUTH CANTON 48

If Farmington's basketball season continues to be a streaky one, coach Rich Roy hopes the latest one will last for a while longer.
The Falcons opened the season with four straight losses but have now rebounded with a pair of victories. The latest came against Plymouth Canton, as Farmington won 65-48 Tuesday at Canton.
"We kinda blitzed them right off the bat," Roy said after his squad's second consecutive victory. "Our point guard, Bill Lehman, made three baskets right at the start."

"Everything just went right at the beginning of the game."
Everything included a 20-10 lead for the Falcons after one quarter and a 12-point margin (33-21) at the half. Canton could never get on track, as Farmington controlled the boards (59 team rebounds) and enjoyed a good shooting night (26 of 50 floor shots, 52 percent).
Jeff McGrath, a senior forward, paced the Falcons with 17 points and 13 rebounds. Junior forward Jerry Liphart added 13 points and 10 rebounds for Farmington.
Farmington travels to Pontiac Northern for a contest Friday, starting at 8 p.m.

FARMINGTON HARRISON 63
LIVONIA CHURCHILL 56
Farmington Harrison's Brian Burgess turned in an outstanding all-around performance to spark the Hawks to a 63-56 victory over Livonia Churchill Tuesday at Harrison.
Burgess netted a game-high 24 points, hauled down 10 rebounds, passed off for four assists and made four steals during the contest.
