Registration under way

(Continued from page 1C) (Continued from page 1C)
Eight different topics are offered at 1 p.m. on Tuesdays, beginning Jan.
22. The series of tickets for $32 entitles the owner to pick six of the eight of his or her choice.
The 19th century art of White-Smith, will teach the fundamentals of the Colonial design, layout and cutting of simple pieces.

The five-session introductory course will zero in on how to develop basic skills of the crafts using simple tools.

The 19th century art of sic sikills of the crafts usthe tinsmith is enjoying a revival and begins for Chris Klein brings a ta 4 pm. Wednesday, Jan. the center called "ChisanMerle Davies, who 9:30 p.m. Wednesday, studied under Moravian March 26.

ON TUESDAY after-noons, beginning Feb. 5,

In two and a half hours, participants, both adults and children, will learn the Korean finger calcu-lation — addition, subtraction and multiplicatraction and multiplica-tion.

Mrs. Klein has been teaching school for eight years in Troy and has a master's degree in teach-ing children with learning disabilities.

men and women of all ages will be helped to assess their life style and the sources of personal problems in the class called "Design Your Own Holistic Life Style." A life Bellines is a choice, leads the sessions.

Other new classes are cheeken and learning how to prepare your income tax, on Monday evenings beginning Jan. 23, and learning how to prepare your income tax, on monday evenings beginning Jan. 21.

Two new sessions are conomical the sessions of economical value of the sessions of economical and no-fuss menus that turn out with ease and learning how to prepare your income tax, on Monday are not make the sessions of economical and no-fuss menus that turn out with ease and learning how to prepare your proposed to the sessions of economical works and learning how to prepare your proposed to the sessions of economical monday afternoons, because of collections of the control of the sessions of economical and no-fuss menus that turn out with ease and learning how to prepare your proposed to the sessions of economical and no-fuss menus that turn out with ease and learning how to prepare your proposed to the sessions of economical and no-fuss menus that turn out with ease and learning how to prepare your proposed to the sessions of economical and no-fuss menus that turn out with ease and learning how to prepare your proposed to the proposed to the sessions of economical and no-fuss menus that turn out with ease and learning how to prepare your proposed to the proposed to the sessions of economical and no-fuss menus that turn out with ease and learning how to prepare your proposed to the proposed to the ## club circuit

HILL AND DALE GARDEN CLUB meets at 8 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 10, in Farmington Hills Community Library for a program called "Lincoln's Life Accented by Music and Flowers."
Guest speaker is Welton Petz, principal of Flanders Elementary School and a nationally recognized authority on the life of Abraham Lincoln.

BETHANY NORTHWEST, a support group for eparated and divorced Christians, meets at 8 p.m.

separated and divorced Christians, meets at 8 p.m. Friday, Jan I, in Mercy Center.
The group provides educational and social opportunities for the members. Meetings every month feature a speaker, followed by discussion, and refrehsments.
Donation of $2 is asked at the door.

ADAT SHALOM SISTERHOOD meets at 12:30 p.m. Monday, Jan. 14, in the synagogue on Middle-belt Road and Northwestern Highway, Guest speaker for the atternon is Harriet Saperstein, Principal City Planner for Detti. Her talk and slide presentation is called "Recycling the Riverfront: Regional Reasons, Plans, Projects and Decare".

Riverfront: Regional Reasons, Plans, Projects and Dreams."

Mrs. Saperstein, a resident of Detroit, is responsible for a major grant to improve Belle Isls, and is a member of the executive division of the city's recreation department.

A coffee hour will precede the program. Program vice president of the group is Anne Steinberg, and hospitality chairperson is Ethel Goldenberg.

Guests are welcomed by Claudia Gold, president of the sisterhood.

of the sisternood.

SOLO FLIGHT, a singles group for those over 30 years of age, meets at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 15, in Temple Beth El, 7400 Telegraph, Birmingham. Guest speaker for the evening is Barry Franklin, Ph.D., director of Cardiac Rehabilitation and Physical Fitness at Sinal Hospital. His program is called "Myths and Misconceptions," concerning exercise, conditioning and weight control. Admission of $3, which includes refreshments, is asked at the door.

asked at the door.

FARMINGTON NEIGHBORS CLUB invite all women in Farmington and Farmington Hills to a luncheon meeting to begin with coektalis at 11:30 a.m. Wednesday, Jan. 16, in Glen Oaks Courty Club, 30500 Thirteen Mile Road.

Gail Greenfield will demonstate aerobics and ask club members and guests to join in learning a few Reservations are necessary by calling Ruth Paul, 478-5739.

echo park Jewelry school Appraisals

Kindergarten, Pre-School and Mother Toddler Program

Fredrick See West Long Lide Room Jewelers at Lidegraph 646-0973

We Have Something to SALE About We're Celebrating & also Proud to Announce the Opening of our Second Location: Claire Péarone of Somerset Mall

646-5590 4275 Echo Park Road Bloomfield Hills

MUDILLAR

Applegate Square Northwestern Hwy. at Inkster Southfield, MI of Claire Péarone Troy, MI 643-0770

Barbara Burgess, dance teacher at Farmington Community Center, will guide party-goers through an evening of the latest dance steps during "Saturday Night Fever." Things get under way with wine and a buffet dinner at 7 p.m. followed by lessons for the disco scene, staged as a benefit to the center, Donation is $12.50 per person, and reservations are necessary by calling the center, 477-8404. (Staff photo by Randy Borst)

ROYAL OAK BIRMINGHAM FERNDALE SOUTHFIELD TEL-TWELVE RUCHESTERMEADOWBROOKVILLAGEMALL&NORTHHILLP

